U.S. Approaches Production Of H-Bomb Material

AEC Reports Major Advances In Atomic Weapons Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States announced today it is approaching "first major production" of materials for hydrogen bombs, and said that in the first half of 1953 development of atomic weapons has "substantially advanced.'

It said more fissionable material, the stuff which produces the explosive power of A-bombs, was produced than in any previous half-year.

The government announced also that it is working toward development of a super-speed atomic powered submarine even before tests have been run on two A-subs now nearing completion and rated potentially faster than ordinary underseas craft.

The Atomic Energy Commission (AEC), which runs the nation's atomic program, said in its semi-annual report to Congress that last spring's weapons tests in Nevada disclosed such valuable information that it will not be necessary to hold full-scale tests there this fall, as originally planned.

Indicate New Weapon

Those tests, the commission said, indicated "several very profitable avenues to new and improved weapons" which would afford "the opportunity of substantially greater atomic weapons capability for the United States."

It said the last of the 11 shots in the spring series — a detonation rated by observers as the most powerful yet set off by this country — had "obviated the necessity of a full-scale test series originally planned (in Nevada) for the fall of 1953."

Without further reference to the power of the 11th shot, the commission said it "emphasized the value of the continental test site in that it permitted the shot o be scheduled, fired and the data returned to the laboratory all within the space of one month, thus enhancing the speed of weapon development activities.'

"Research continued to be directed at improvement of current weapon models and the development of new models to meet the requirements of th armed forcs," Th AEC report added. Dated June 30, it covered the first six months of this year.

The report said the previously announced decision to add Bikini Atoll to the Eniwetok proving grounds in the Pacific was made "to provide flexibility in testing new and improved nuclear weapons." Bikini, 180 miles east of Eniwetok, was used for two tests in 1946.

The AEC ALSO TOLD Congress that:

1. Both foreign and domestic production and exploration for uranium ore for the United States was stepped up duri ng the last six months.

2. Production of fissionable materials for bombs and other uses "considerably exceeded" that of any previous period — and at the lowest costs in AEC's history "despite increases in wages and material prices."

3. New facilities entered the production stream. These included a new plant at Fernald, Ohio, for processing uranium ore; portions of new plants at Oak Ridge, Tenn. and Paducah, Ky., for separating bomb-useful uranium from uranium as it occurs in nature, and supporting facilities for the plant at Savannah River, S. C., where materials for either A-bombs or H-bombs will be made.

Regarding the latter plant, the AEC said "Some of the support-

Congress Speeds Money Bills, May Adjourn Late This Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—A quickened pace on major money bills brightened hopes today that Congress would meet its target date and adjourn for the year by this weekend, although perhaps not by tomorrow night.

Some knotty legislative problems remained, and they could cause trouble. So, too, could a White House request—reported to be under serious consideration—for a hike in the federal debt ceiling, now at 275 billion dollars.

Senate Democrats appeared to be lining up solidly against such a move and, while House leaders voiced confidence such a bill would pass there, even administration backers said action might delay adjournment until next week.

Early today, at the end of a 15½-hour session, the Senate voted 69-10 approval of a $6,745,318,202 foreign aid budget. That sent it to conference with the House, which had voted about half a billion dollars less.

All 13 of the regular government money bills have passed the House and all but one of them have passed the Senate. Ten have gone to President Eisenhower for signature. Two, counting foreign aid, are in Senate-House conference committees.

Pending when the Senate started work today was the remaining one: a $649,725,000 catch-all measure which carries funds for the overseas information program and for civil defense, among other things.

Two money bills, both Senate-House compromises, were cleared to the President's desk yesterday. They provide $34,371,541,000 for the defense establishment and $96,187,251 for Congress itself and the federal judiciary.

At this stage, it appeared Congress would wind up by slicing about $12,770,000,000 off former President Truman's budget re-

U.S. Hikes Food Relief Program

E. Germans Defy Reds, Swarm Into Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—The West hurriedly boosted its gigantic food relief program to a round-the-clock operation today as the stampede of hungry East Germans to collect mercy parcels hit record proportions.

Defying Communist police terror and threats of reprisal, the stream of needy coming through the Iron Curtain became a day and night flood.

Last night for the first time, some relief stations worked all through the night and still couldn't handle the crowds.

About 200,000 parcels were distributed yesterday to top the previous day's mark by 50 per cent.

Authorities estimated the distribution in today's giant giveaway would hit 250,000. That would mean more than 700,000 Easterners receiving food since the handouts began Monday morning.

To cope with the throngs, West Berlin authorities opened 10 more relief stations. This raised the total to 60—double the number with which the program started.

At the big Schoenberg City Hall station, 12,000 persons were in line by midmorning. At Wilmersdorf, 10,000 waited patiently in a drizzle. Similar scenes dotted all sectors of free West Berlin.

Hundreds stood through the night at Schoeneberg.

Extra crews were hired to help catch up with the demand. The food is taken from West Berlin's antiblockade reserves. It is being replace by a 15 million dollar American gift shipped on President Eisenhower's orders to give relief to the needy despite Moscow's rejection.

A baby airlift is helping deliver the American shipments from the port of Hamburg.

4 Killed, 12 Hurt In Collapse Of Span

MONESSEN, Pa. (AP)—Four men are dead and 12 injured in a steel plant railroad span collapse that sent tons of limestone and iron ore from three hopper cars crashing onto a group of lunching workers.

Seventeen hours after the accident at Pittsburgh Steel Co., weary workers today found the body of the fourth victim buried under tons of debris.

He is Celeste Tretter, 67, Monessen. Others killed were Archie McCoy, 26, Monessen; Adorado E. Arrigoni, 62, Charleroi; and Francis Cowell, 31, of near Monessen.

The trestle collapsed with explosive suddenness as the victims, seeking relief from the heat, sat in the shade of the hopper cars eating their lunch.

Troops Leave Battle Line

UN Completes Buffer Zone Withdrawal

SEOUL (AP)—Two undefeated armies—Allied and Red—walked away from the Korean front today, leaving in silence a narrow strip that only days ago was rocked by gunfire.

Under armistice terms all troops had to be out of the 2½-mile-wide belt by 10 p. m. tonight (8 a. m., EST). The Army said most of the Allied front was uninhabited seven hours before the deadline.

Allied soldiers — Americans, South Koreans and other troops of 15 other lands—started leaving the battle line shortly after the truce was signed Monday morning. The guns fell silent Monday night.

Columns of soldiers walked down from hills they had bought in blood—from battlegrounds halfway between the present and history:

Heartbreak Ridge . . . White Horse Mountain . . . Old Baldy . . . Pork Chop Hill . . . Bunker Hill . . . The Hook . . . and the outposts—Vegas, Harry, Berlin and East Berlin . . .

Going to the hills they crept along under blazing Red guns in the infantryman's wary, crouching walk.

Walked Back Upright

When they came down they walked upright, with no shells to fear.

South Korean troops pulled back in an orderly fashion from the two thirds of the front they held.

Almost all fortifications were destroyed. Bunkers were caved in and trenches filled. Timbers were salvaged where possible.

Across no man's land, front-line officers reported the Chinese and North Koreans were sometimes using pack mules to get their equipment out.

At the southern edge of the demilitarized zone, the Allied soldiers strung barbed wire and set up roadblocks to prevent anyone from entering.

The zone will be policed by members of the Military Armistice Commission at Panmunjom.

Post Signs Along Zone

The Allied command strung signs all along the border saying, "South Limits Demilitarized Zone. Do Not Enter." The signs are in English and Korea.

In some sectors, American and other Allied soldiers worked feverishly to destroy elaborate fortifications before the deadline.

Associated Press photographer George Sweers said 2nd Division infantrymen were working hastily to demolish the trenches and bunkers on Outpost Harry.

About 50 Chinese sat lazily on a hill 100 yards away and watched. The Chinese spectators occasionally played records over a loudspeaker for the Americans.

The Chinese brought little packages containing wine and handkerchiefs and left them on the battlefield just forward of one listening post.

Meanwhile, far to the north, U. N. forces were leaving islands off both coasts of Korea. The islands were used for radar and air rescue bases. Their deadline for leaving is 10 p. m. Aug. 6.

Bill Faces New Fight In House

$6½ Billion In Foreign Aid Gets Senate Okay

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate early today voted $6,745,318,202 in foreign aid funds to climax a 15½-hour, oratory-packed session in which all efforts to slash the total were rejected. But the bill faced a new fight with the House.

Senate representatives must work out a compromise settlement with those of the House, which pruned more than a billion dollars from President Eisenhower's request for funds to help the free world combat communism.

A Senate-House conference committee will be named today to seek a compromise.

By a thumping 69-10 margin, after beating off six attempts to cut it down, the Senate stamped approval on a big money bill containing some 548 million dollars more than voted by the House.

If the Senate-House compromise follows the pattern recently set in the rush to adjourn by this weekend, the final total probably will be 6½ billions—including about 4½ billions in new funds for the year which began July 1, and two billions in unpledged money from previous appropriations.

Dems Back Passage

On final Senate passage, 37 Democrats outnumbered 31 Republican who shouted approval along with the lone independent, Morse of Oregon.

Opposing was a lone Democrat, Olin Johnston (SC) and nine Republicans: Bricker (Ohio), Capehart and Jenner (Ind), Dworshak and Welker (Idaho), Goldwater (Ariz), Langer and Young (ND) and Malone (Nev).

While a half-billion more than voted by the House, the $6,745,318,202 total was a half-billion less than requested by Eisenhower and some three billions below what former President Truman asked last January.

Administration Triumph Seen

Passage of the bill, containing exactly the sum recommended by the Senate Appropriations Committee, was considered an administration triumph by Acting Leader Knowland of California, Chairman Bridges (R-NH) of the Appropriations Committee and Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill), who conceded he had bitterly fought similar measures in the past under Democratic presidents.

Knowland hit hard on the theme that any additional cuts in the foreign aid program might cause "ruthless men in the Kremlin" to believe the United States and the free world are weakening.

"If we do stand firm, no man can tell whether the stresses and strains may bring godless communism crashing down," he said.

As the bill cleared the Senate it contained $4,502,653,811 in new money and $2,182,664,391 in funds previously voted by Congress but not yet under contract or obligation.

The House had cut into both these funds. The Senate restored 124 millions of new cash plus 424 millions of previous funds.

Sen. Russell Long (D-La) led the initial effort to hold the funds to exactly the amount voted by the House. But it was beaten 53-35 as party lines split almost precisely down the middle. Voting for the cut were 17 Republicans, 17 Democrats and the lone independent. Against it were 27 Republicans and 26 Democrats.

Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), with a bitter protest against "blood money" and immoral trade, offered an amendment to withhold American aid, dollar for dollar, from any nation which traded with Red China.

Needing a two-thirds vote to suspend Senate rules in order to tack legislation on a money bill, McCarthy fell far short of even a majority, losing 50-34.

Army Sergeant Last Man To Die In Korea

SEOUL (AP)—An American sergeant was the last Allied soldier killed in the Korean War, the 8th Army said today.

He died in the blast of a Communist mortar shell on the Eastern Front at 8:40 p. m. Monday. Eighty minutes later the guns stopped firing.

The sergeant's name was withheld but the Army said he was in K Co., 3rd Battalion, 5th Regimental Combat Team.

Dulles To Discuss Neutralized Korea In Meeting With Rhee

WASHINGTON (AP)—The possibility of seeking a permanent Korean settlement on the basis of "neutralizing" the whole country probably will be discussed with President Syngman Rhee when Secretary of State Dulles meets him in Seoul next week.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) has advanced the idea of a neutralized Korea as one which might make unification of the country more appealing to the Communists and still satisfy United States and Allied security requirements.

Knowland, acting GOP leader in the Senate, is one of four Senators who will accompany Dulles to Korea. The others are H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ), Richard Russell (D-Ga), and Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex).

Mentioned To Rhee

The neutralization idea has received some consideration in the State Department. According to some reports, it has been mentioned to Rhee and he indicated disapproval. However, although formal U. S. policy toward Korea is presently developing along different lines, the neutralization idea is considered to be still open for exploration.

Dulles is going to Korea for the stated purpose of negotiating with Rhee on the kind of security treaty which the United States and South Korea should make.

Faces Two Problems

Dulles' problem is either (A) to try to discover some formula for quick negotiation of Korean unity at the conference starting by late October, or (b) to try to persuade Rhee to give up his idea of going to war again to achieve unification by force. American officials believe Rhee could not do that without powerful assistance, which they say he would not have.

Dulles this week ruled out concession to Red China on membership in the U. N., and officials say privately the United States would never agree to let Formosa go under Communist rule. Thus the possibility of bargaining with the Reds to give up North Korea appears virtually nonexistent. This situation has stimulated fresh interest in the idea of neutralization.

Taft Condition Is Unchanged, Hospital Says

NEW YORK (AP)—The condition of Sen. Robert A. Taft was reported "relatively unchanged" today.

He had taken a turn for the worse Tuesday, but was described as resting comfortably yesterday.

A bulletin today from New York Hospital, where he recently underwent an exploratory operation in connection with a hip ailment, said:

"Sen. Taft's condition remains relatively unchanged. He is resting comfortably and continues to have no pain."

Hospital authorities said another bulletin probably would be issued about 5 p. m.

"Mr. Republican's" son, William Howard Taft III, ambassador to Ireland, was due to arrive here today by plane to visit him.

Sen. Taft's wife, Martha, was reported to have returned to Washington yesterday. She visited him at New York Hospital Tuesday after he took a turn for the worse.

The latest official word from the hospital—issued last night and signed by Dr. Claude E. Forkner—was that Taft was "resting comfortably" and that there had been no change in his condition since yesterday morning.

A hospital bulletin issued at 5 p. m. yesterday said Taft "had a better day" than on Tuesday. Yesterday morning's bulletin reported the 63-year-old Republican majority leader from Ohio was "somewhat improved."

Lord Salisbury made the statement in the House of Lords.

Flights Ignored Deadline For Arms Shipment

Tracked By Radar; Reds Accuse Allies Of 2 More Violations

MUNSAN (AP) — Allied radar tracked large numbers of Communist warplanes southward from Manchuria to North Korean bases after the cease-fire deadline Monday night, it was reported today as the Reds complained of two more minor U.N truce violations.

U. S. Air Force officers said the Red planes—presumably MIG jets—were spotted by a big Allied radar station on Cho Island, deep behind Communist lines off North Korea. The story was delayed for 24 hours by censors.

An officer said the Communist planes began taking off at dark, apparently from Manchurian bases safe from Allied attack, and were still landing at North Korean fields after the 10 p. m. deadline when all arms and armaments shipments into Korea were to have stopped.

Allied planes have bombed North Korean air bases continually, but an Air Force officer said "apparently we didn't leave the fields non-operational."

Truce Police To Meet

Meanwhile, the joint Military Armistice Commission picked Saturday as the tentative date for the first face-to-face meeting of Swedish, Swiss, Polish and Czech officers who will police the flow of men and arms into and out of Korea.

Red Cross workers from six nations convened at Panmunjom to chart the role they will play in helping repatriate nearly 90,000 prisoners of war starting Wednesday.

Staff officers handling the prisoner exchange met in Panmunjom to put finishing touches on plans for the huge operation as the first group of Communist prisoners landed at Inchon en route to camps where they will await exchange.

Maj. Gen. Blackshear M. Bryan, head of the five-man U.N. team on the joint Military Armistice Commission, said Thursday's meeting "went very well—quite smoothly."

Violations Charged To Planes

But the Reds accused the allies of two more truce violations. Both involved U.N. aircraft which allegedly circled over the demilitarized zone.

A U. N. spokesman said Bryan "noted the allegations and will deal with them the same way as he did the allegations made yesterday. We will announce the results of our investigations later.'

Wednesday the Reds accused the U. N. of eight minor violations of the three-day-old armistice. Bryan called the Communist charges un-

O'Brien Gets Off Hong Kong Ferry After 10 Months, 12 Days

HONG KONG (AP) — Michael Patrick O'Brien finally made it ashore.

After 10 months and 12 days, the 57-year-old man without a country today left the 6-foot brig of the Portuguese Macao-Hong Kong ferry Lee Hong. He'd traveled at least 12,500 miles — the equivalent of a trip halfway round the world—sailing between the two ports.

But the ex-bartender and marine engineer wasn't going anywhere, yet. Police took him in custody and refused to reveal their plans for him.

His friends said they were trying to get him cleared for an unnamed South American country where his Russian wife and child are reported to have gone from Shanghai.

O'Brien boarded the Lee Hong in Macao Sept. 18, 1952, after leaving Red China. At ong Kong, 40 miles away, authorities refused to accept his Red Cross travel papers and wouldn't let him debark. Macao also said he was unwanted.

So he rode and rode.

He says he's an American. He claims he just didn't bother to get a passport when he went to China 25 years ago.

The U. S. State Department denies he's a citizen. And the Justice Department has said he was deported by the United States as a result of assault, robbery and burglary convictions. The Justice Department said his true name is Steve Ragan.

Several Ragans in the United States claimed him for a brother, but nothing came of their actions.

Bankruptcy De Luxe

By INEZ ROBB

Economics are so frightfully, frightfully important in modern life—don't you think—that I am as interested as the next poll pry in how the other half ekes out.

Inez Robb

So today I want to share a note I have just picked up on the rich, full life. I am indebted for this item, to which we shall come sooner or later, to a Broadway column, the mother-lode or main stream of social mores in this day and age.

-:-

IN THIS instance, the mother-lobe reports that Dick Haymes, a crooner and some-time movie actor, is returning soon to Hollywood to file proceedings in bankruptcy.

Naturally I jumped — more shame to me.—to the antiquated conclusion that this Mr. Haymes is broke, busted and financially flat as a mackerel.

I figured here is a kid just about ready to sell apples.

Then I read that Mr. Haymes while waiting to go home and go bankrupt is 1-Courting Miss Rita Hayworth and 2—Domiciled at the Plaza Hotel, both of which activities come under the heading of costly, even if Miss Hayworth picks up her half of the check.

But let us presume that the best things in life are free and that Miss Hayworth is content merely to walk in the park, hold hands, munch popcorn and never go near El Morocco, "21," Tiffany's or Sally Victor's.

STILL AND all, what strikes a new note in bankruptcy proceedings to me is the spot Mr. Haymes has picked in which to shrive himself, the Plaza Hotel.

It is a tribute to gracious living, which the leading magazines are always preaching, that Mr. Haymes, on the verge of declaring himself insolvent, has chosen to spend these final weeks at the Plaza.

Lesser men might have crept off to the Mills Hotel, the Railroad YMCA or the Salvation Army men's hostel on the Bowery.

They might even have tried to cadge a room with a pal. But Mr. Haymes has risen above these tawdry expedients and put up at the Plaza to insure bankruptcy and verity when he throws his empty pokey on the mercy of the court.

THERE IS a lofty idealism about this gesture which I find quite paralyzing, and I wouldn't be the least surprised if it doesn't leave Mr. Haymes' creditors in the same condition.

This crooner understands the true meaning of noblesse oblige, i.e., dry eye, stiff upper lip and room service to the last.

When I first read the item concerning Mr. Haymes making his last stand at the Plaza, I was inclined to cast an old-fashioned or jaundiced eye on this behavior. I was set aright by Miss Ann Gilles, a lady accustomed to working both with artists and money.

"What you fail to understand is that most people today are too poor to go bankrupt," she said, rather severely. "It takes money to go bankrupt in these inflationary times. Why, I know a number of persons who are now saving money to go bankrupt. Believe me, you can't do it on a shoe string any longer."

THIS WHOLE thing is an eye-opener to me. I shouldn't be surprised, if I nose around long enough, to find that there are bankruptcy clubs just like Christmas clubs.

And it is now apparent to me that Mr. Haymes, in the modern groove, has class with a capital "A."

Glidden Tour Reaches Ohio Sept. 14-16

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The 1953 Glidden Tour will swing across Ohio Sept. 14-16 with the biggest cavalcade of ancient automobiles ever staged in the United States as a salute to Ohio's 150th birthday.

Ohio Sesquicentennial Commission said today the motorcade will pass through Cleveland, Barberton, Wooster, Columbus and Toledo.

The Glidden Tour is an annual revival of automobile runs, conducted originally at the turn of the century by the American Automobile Association, to demonstrate the reliability of the "horseless carriage" as a passenger vehicle.

Peron Says Ike Corrects Ex-Presidents' Mistakes

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, (AP)—An editorial in the newspaper Democracia signed by "Descartes" today hailed a "new era of friendship" between Argentina and the United States as a result of the visit of Dr. Milton Eisenhower, brother of the U. S. President. "Descartes" is a pen name used by President Juan Peron.

The editorial said President Eisenhower had "neutralized the errors" of his predecessors and concluded, "Thank God, the United States has a President."

FBI Arrests 6 Red Officials

Charged Conspiring For Overthrow Of U. S.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Six shabbily dressed, tight-lipped men were scooped up in an FBI dragnet early today on charges they conspired "to advocate overthrow of the United States government by force and violence.

FBI agents swooped down on the homes of four and the summer cottage of another. The sixth was nabbed as he emerged from a Communist cell meeting.

Hours later, the six by then sleepy-eyed men were held in a total of $175,000 bail and led away to jail cells, manacled two by two.

Bail was set at dawn in the Federal Building office of U. S. Commissioner Henry P. Carr.

Joseph Kuzma, 41—identified by the FBI as a Communist party trade union secretary in eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware—was seized, the FBI agents said, as he walked away from a Communist party meeting in northern Philadelphia. He was held in $50,000 bail for a further hearing Aug. 6 after Asst. U.S. Attorney Joseph Hildenberger told Carr he considered Kuzma "the leader of this group."

Kuzma, identified by the FBI as a native of Brooklyn, N. Y., told Carr he couldn't remember his home address in Philadelphia and would require "a telephone book to recall it."

Held for a further hearing on the same date in $25,000 bail each were:

David Dubensky, also known as David Davis, 46; Sherman Labovitz, 29; Walter Lowenfels, 56; Thomas Nabried, 51, and Benjamin Weiss, 39, all of Philadelphia.

Nabried, the only Negro in the group, wore a white T shirt. Weiss sported a tan T shirt very similar to those issued by the government to servicemen. Lowenfels had on a blue sports shirt and carried a sports jacket over his shoulder.

Kuzma was described by the FBI as "associated with the Communist party since the middle 1930s," Labovitz as "a onetime Communist party organizer," Lowenfels as "Communist party candidate for Pennsylvania representative in 1940 and former manager editor of the Pennsylvania edition of the Worker," Nabried as "organizer of the Communist party in eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware," Weiss as "treasurer of the Communist party in eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware for a number of years," and Dubensky-Davis as "onetime member of the National Committee of the Communist party."

Only Dubensky-Davis was represented by counsel at the hearing. His bail was set at $25,000.

From the hearing, the six were taken to Philadelphia's Moyamensing Prison to await bail or the further hearing.

Lowenfels was seized at his summer cottage in Weymouth, N. J. The others except Kuzma—were arrested at home.

The six were charged specifically under the Smith Act with conspiring to overthrow the government. Their arrests brought to 87 the number of Communist party officials seized under the act since 1948, the Justice Department said.

At the hearing before Carr, all six kept tight lips except Weiss, who asked, "Is this a formal arraignment?"

He was told by Carr it was just a preliminary hearing.

Salem Soldier Tells Of Crash Aftermath

In a recent letter to his parents, Salem S-Sgt. Richard A. Tolson, stationed at Tachikawa, Japan, with the 21st Troop Carrier Squadron, gave an after account of the June 18 crash of the C-124 Globemaster plane at Tachikawa, in which 129 airmen were killed.

"The day after the crash we went up on a test hop to view the wreckage from about 1,500 feet," he wrote. "The pilot flew in two circles around the spot so we could get a good look.

"There was little that you could distinguish as plane parts, mostly it was just an outline of rubbish," the airman said.

The Japanese people have made a shrine of the area where the Globemaster crashed, according to a newspaper clipping sent home by S-Sgt. Tolson. Excerpts from the clipping are as follows:

"Air-minded, because the roar of the big Korean Airlift planes can be heard every day overhead, and friendly to American airmen, because of their many kindnesses to the children and orphans, the people of Japan have been bringing floral offerings to those who died, placing little bouquets of flowers on the mangled wreckage of the giant Globemaster as it rests in a harvested wheat field."

" 'I never saw anything like it,' said Maj. Gen. Victor Bertrandias, U. S. Air Force director of flying safety, who watched small Japanese school girls bring the flowers.

" 'They walk reverently up to the wreckage, carrying the flowers proudly, bow two or three times, pray quietly, and gently place the bouquets on the wreckage,' " the clipping relates.

"Most of those bringing flowers are farm folk, many of them teenagers from nearby Kodaira High School."

S-Sgt. Tolson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orvan Tolson of RD 3, Salem.

Million Quakes Occur Each Year, Report

DENVER (AP)—There are more than one million earthquakes a year, the Rev. James B. MacElwane, president of the Jesuit Seismological Association said last night. The association is meeting in Denver.

"But it isn't as bad as it sounds," he added hastily. "Only a fraction of these quakes can be felt without using instruments such as the seismograph and very seldom do they cause any damage."

Ohio Farmers Prepare For Fall Plowing

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Many Ohio farmers are preparing for fall plowing, the U.S. Weather Bureau said today in its weekly crop report.

It said some farmers are baling straw and a few have begun plowing fields for fall seeding.

Warm and wet weather during the week ended July 24 aided crop growth considerably but delayed grain harvesting, said the weather bureau, adding:

"Wheat harvesting is finished in several Western Ohio areas. Oats combining is well under way throughout the state except in a few northeast sections. Some western county farmers already have finished their oat harvesting.

"Commercial tomatoes are ripening in the western and northern areas. Soybeans, sugar beets and commercial lima beans all are progressing rapidly Corn is well tasseled over most of Ohio and is growing well, indicating a good crop in most counties.

"Tobacco fields appear in good shape. Second alfalfa cutting continues in scattered areas. Truck farms and gardens have been helped considerably by the heavy rains. Fruit is developing well. Milk production remains fair and eggs are becoming more scarce."

Ohio Employment Up 5 Per Cent In Year

A construction trades strike caused a 41 per cent drop in Akron construction pay rolls and a 37 per cent drop in employment in that field, the report said.

Call It Independence

When the government headed by Premier de Gasperi fell this week, Italians failed to show excitement. The fall was of interest only to politicians engrossed in their endless contest of power.

There wasn't much excitement in the United States, either, despite the threadbare claim that de Gasperi is all that stands between independence and Communist enslavement in Italy. Americans have invested a great deal of money and a still greater amount of worry in that proposition.

But gradually it is becoming clear to even our most tireless interventionists that independence means being independent of domination from all sources.

The Italians are being independent. They may suffer for it, as Great Britain once warned the American colonists they would suffer, but they are claiming the right to make their own mistakes. So are the French. So, to the horror and disgust of Anglophiles, are the perfidious British, who have the temerity to disagree with Americans about a great many things these days. Even Syhgman Rhee of Korea dares to disagree.

The cause of independence is beginning to develop momentum. That was the aim, as we recall it, of the whole foreign-aid program — to make foreign countries independent. The program has hit a net total of $37.6 billion so far, not counting the latest appropriations.

Dairymen's Dilemma

When spokesmen for dairymen admitted the other day they had been doing a poor job of selling, they made a giant stride. But their dilemma will stick with them.

Mainly, it is how to get rid of the total supply of a perishable product produced in varying amounts twice a day, 365 days a year. Dairymen cannot regulate production from day to day like automobile manufacturers. They cannot pile up inventories like producers of iron, coal and wood.

They don't like government subsidies and the abuses that go with the subsidies. They don't like to be dependent on political decisions for their livelihood. They would rather create such a lively demand for fluid milk, ice cream and other diary products they could stand on their own feet.

Therefore, they are going to try to stand on their own feet. They are going to see if they can whoop up more demand for what they have to sell and thereby cut down on the necessity for government assistance in dealing with the dilemma of what to do with excess milk which accrues from having enough dairy cattle in the United States to take care of the demand.

If every other manufacturing group could be counted on to show the same self-reliance in the months ahead, there would be less apprehension about what is going to happen to their surpluses.

Blue-Ribbon Flights

An Air Force bomber has been flown across the Atlantic in the record time of 4 hours and 45 minutes.

In the days ahead, there will be savage competition to nail down the blue-ribbon honors for crossing the Atlantic by air in record time.

The aviators will pick up where the sailors left off when they quit building superliners at public expense. And like the sailors, they eventually will have to get together on the ground rules. In the meantime, here's one to start on:

All times must be for flights in the same direction. The Air Force bomber's spectacular time of 4 hours and 15 minutes is for an west-east crossing, with a favoring wind of up to 104 miles an hour, for an average speed of 616 miles.

The best time for an east-west crossing has been made by a British bomber which made an average speed of 605 miles an hour against the prevailing wind. This was a more spectacular performance, in view of that circumstance.

National pride notwithstanding, the British still have the faster bomber.

Dancing On Rooftops

This is a hot-weather comment. It is non-political, without any significance whatever and as nearly non-controversial as the mind of man can be in 1953 A.D.

It is about Princess Margaret, the sister of Queen Elizabeth, who came home from a jaunt around what is left of the empire and danced until 4 a.m. the other morning on some rooftops which had been borrowed by her hostess because the apartment in which she lived was too small. The princess had such a good time she stayed until the last dog was hanged, or hung, as we say over here in America.

That Capt. Peter Townsend, the fellow the princess is supposed to be sweet on and vice versa, wasn't there. But the princess had a good time anyway.

We want it known that we are in favor of princesses who dance on rooftops. End of comment.

New Style Diplomacy

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Resiliency Concept Relegates Principle To Limbo

After the truce — what?

The answer is already being given, for the news is filled with double-talk from some U.N. officials here and abroad — the start of a welching on promises and a surrender of principles as the sacrifices of the brave are quickly forgotten.

In Washington, in London, in Paris — they are already talking "compromise," and ultimate admission of Red China into the Security Council of the U.N.

The aggressor of yesterday is to be the bosom friend of tomorrow, even though 5,000 Americans who were taken prisoners by the Reds were instantly murdered, or tortured to death.

A majority of U.N. member nations are reported ready to isolate the U.S. government which officially still opposes Red China. A surprising number of people in this country, however, seem to feel that it is time "to accommodate" Red China.

Certain manifestations of the present day make this writer wonder if the America he knew and read about in school is passing and if the things that used to evoke American pride and patriotism are now smothered, if not suppressed, in an atmosphere that seeks to make what is unmoral appear moral.

Diplomacy, for example, is viewed as a convenient device to make palatable what is plainly wrong in principle.

To illustrate: a leading newspaper which has been advocating a warm attitude toward the government of Red China gives its advice editorially on the forthcoming "political conference." It says:

"For resiliency — the ability to adjust quickly to new situations— is a primary qualification of adept diplomacy. In this case an indication, now that we do not intend merely to stand pat on the China question, might do a lot to avoid later difficulty with our allies."

Then one turns to another page and reads there an article written by a veteran American commentator on international affairs who is highly regarded in Britain and Europe generally. He writes:

"A round table conference could discuss new constructive plans for Korea in which Mr. Dulles' promises would be transcended and the United States, to put it bluntly, gotten off the hook. . . .

"I would be impossible for Mr. Dulles to honor all the promises, for they are often hopelessly contradictory and some are positively weird. . . ."

There follows a reference to some of the promises made to President Rhee of the Republic of Korea in particular, which it appears now we didn't mean to keep at all.

Secretary Dulles evidently will have a hard time explaining all this to Syngman Rhee in the personal conferences of the coming weeks.

Next one finds press dispatches from the Communist side.

Having heard in the last few days some radio speeches by American officials about how the truce in Korea is a "victory for collective security," it is disconcerting to read now that Malenkov and Molotov are claiming a big "victory" in Korea.

One disposes of these, however, as mere "propaganda" — and that's that.

But what meets the eye next On Page 16 — far away from the other pieces of news and comment— is another item. It has a single column headline: "Aid Increase to Indo-China Feared."

This dispatch from Indo-China tells us that French officials "expressed deep concern over the possibility that the Chinese now would turn southward to boost the quantity of war materials they have been sending to the Communist-led Viet-Minh."

The same dispatch also says that the United States ambassador in Indo-China, Donald Heath, said that the Korean truce "certainly makes it easier" for Red China to send in more assistance to the forces led by Moscow trained No Chi-minn.

What has become of the solemn warnings issued by our government and the governments of Great Britain and France that a truce in Korea must not mean a build-up of the aggressor in Indo-China

Maybe this is one of the statements that now must be overcome with some sort of "resiliency" that will get the statesmen on our side "off the hook."

Logically, if present-day pacifism and peace-at-any-price policies are a true reflection of American opinio, the it is to be presumed that the draft law will be repealed and serious consideration given to the prompt withdrawal of American forces from Europe as well as Asia.

It will be asked, why use military threats or armament language at all — why not leave it all to the "resiliency" of the new-fashioned diplomacy

Lessons From A War

By TRUMAN TWILL

Like all other citizens, I am soaking up everything I can hold about the lessons my country is supposed to have learned in Korea. But I have some reservations not being mentioned by the people who claim to know what the lessons are.

The main one is a doubt that my country learned anything, or is capable of learning anything. On the other hand, I have boundless confidence in people who want to learn. There is no shortage of lessons for people.

Asia is in revolt against centuries of hard-nosed opposition by all kinds of exploiters. Asiatics are on the march. Only a dumb western government could misread the signs of emerging nationalism — the signs that the age of empire is over. When Gen. MacArthur once said all this no one listened; everybody was having too much fun watching the fight between him and Harry Truman.

Modern arms in the hands of backward people make them just as forward in the techniques of mass slaughter as the Germans, masters of 20th century destruction. One of the hardest lessons themselves, the acknowledged about Korea to learn is that the pilots of those MIGs were Chinese, just as the fellows who flew the ZEROs were Japs. Whoever puts weapons in the hands of willing learners shouldn't squawk when the weapons are used.

The wave of the future is breaking with a thundering roar on the coast of Asia, having swept its way from east to west, all the way around the world. It is historic irony that Americans should have been the ones to hasten the exploitation and education of Asiatics—to force the Koreans and the Japanese at gunpoint to expose themselves to western "influence." Americans now are learning what gunpoint means in reverse.

Americans will not be loved in Asia any more than they are loved anywhere else. The American concept of freedom and individual rights will not be understood in Asia any better than it is understood anywhere else. There is only one thing anywhere that all people will be able to understand about Americans in this shrinking world —whether or not they keep their word.

The American record in Asia has not been good so far. Neither has it been wholly bad, but things are off to an uncertain and hesitant beginning in what is destined to be a momentous undertaking for civilization's foremost trustee and guardian.

One more fiasco like the abandonment of China and the desertion of Korea at a critical juncture in 1949, followed by its partial rescue in a war that wrecked the country, would leave no benefit of a doubt about Americans. It would be demonstrated that Americans cannot acquit themselves with honor and credit in their trustee-guardian role.

People can grasp these things but they are beyond the grasp of governments, except insofar as individuals within a government can cause a whole government to reflect what they believe.

Individuals have known since the Spanish-American War that the United States was fumbling and improvising in Asia. It has fumbled and improvised again as far as government is concerned. But as far as people are concerned, it has learned enough to proceed with a sure touch.

The Asiatics are tired of living under the heels of tyrants and exploiters. They are on the march. If Americans don't know what to do about that, they have lost their touch and deserve the fate which lies in wait for countries and for individuals who get out of step with history.

There are about 36 million dairy cattle in the United States.

Uncertain Landing

Extreme Chinese Nationalism

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

In the history of China, vast expanses of non-Chinese territories were conquered.

Sokolsky

Again, a Chinese empire is being resurrected and the present rulers, like their Russian masters, seek to re-establish their country to the outermost boundaries ever held by the Chinese, even if the countries were taken by force, and even if the claims have lain dormant for centuries.

Remote is the empire of Kublai Khan, the Mongol, who ruled from the Black Sea to the Pacific (1214-1294). The Mongols were not Chinese, but the conquerors of China, and their Yuan dynasty did not last long. Nor were the Mongols absorbed by the Chinese, as we are so often incorrectly told, on the theory that China is a sea that salts all waters.

THE MONGOLS receded, degenerated, and like some animals in the winter, hibernated until World War I and the Russian revolution stirred Asia to new life.

Such peoples as the Mongols, the Uzbeks, the Kazakhi, emerged anew, vigorously asserting themselves.

These, of course, Communist China will not attempt to conquer as long as Mao Tze-tung remains a satellite of the Kremlin.

But the remote boundaries of Chienlung (1736-96) lie open for conquest and restoration to China.

Chienlung was the greatest of the Manchu emperors, representing a race of Tatars who emerged out of Manchuria, conquered China,. held Mongolia, established a suzerainty over Korea, Tibet, Burma and Annam (a part of Indo-China) and held for a while Nepal and Bhutan. Then the Manchus degenerated.

It is to the boundaries of Chienlung that Mao Tze-tung is pushing and his conquest of North Korea, in a major war against the United States, is the second step in the restoration of this empire.

THE FIRST was the bloodless conquest of Tibet, over which Great Britain and India also once claimed authority.

The third step will be Burma where the only resistance thus far has been a remnant of Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists. The Burmese alone cannot withstand the Chinese Communist hordes.

The conquest of these vast areas involves not only "face" but also assures Communist China of a food supply.

The rice of Indo-China and Siam (Thailand) are essential to the Chinese economy, and it is clear geographically and politically that Thailand must go as Indo-China goes.

The element of "face" in this complex is enormous, for the Chinese are an intensely nationalistic people, believing that their long history is evidence of superior qualities.

They do not, in their own language, speak of their country as China but as Chung Hua, the Middle Kingdom, the center of the universe.

REPRESSED by the Western powers since 1842, after they lost the Opium War, as it is called, they never gave up the fight for full independence.

This independence they have at last achieved, as regards the West but not as regards Soviet Russia, because, from every Asiatic standpoint, they have won the Korean War, won it fighting not only the mightiest of Western powers, the United States, but 15 other countries that moved into the fray as part of the United Nations.

I am speaking now strickly from an Asiatic standpoint. I recall my many conversations with Sun Yat-sen, the founder of modern China, whose memory is defiled by Nationalist and Communist alike.

There were years when I was with him nearly daily and often he would put a large map of Asia on his study floor and point to the areas that once were China and these, he always said, would be restored to China.

Two of them, Tibet and part of Korea, have already been restored.

THE INTENSIVE nationalism of the Chinese has never been understood by Western peoples, although the evidence is clear and abiding.

On May 4, 1919, for instanc, the students of Shanghai and Peking, from the elementary schools to the colleges, decided that the Paris Treaty should not be signed because it gave Shantung to the Japanese.

Soon all schools, then all factories and shops and places of amusement in China were closed.

This was a total expression by the Chinese people of the nationalism of a race and a culture. To most Westerners in China, it was only a hell-raising excitement started by some children.

One of those was Mao Tze-tung, who shall from this moment on proclaim himself as the Chinese who defeated the United States. In Asia, he will be believed.

Could Equal Lisbon Show

Dear Sir:

After reading about the big celebration in Lisbon, I publicly express the wish that Salem can have one to equal it in 1956, the Salem sesquicentennial year.

A real celebration can be carried through here if all the people in Salem will back the venture. The Salem Historical Society, of which I am a member, could equal the Lisbon show with the many antiques of value and the society's fine background of historical data.

It is the goal of each member to secure a housing place for all the items which have been collected here and a stone house, such as Lisbon has, is to be envied. With the coming of the 150-year celebration, the society is seeking many more items of historical interest.

The society, with the cooperation of other clubs in the city, should be able to put on a big celebration with a pageant depicting the many highlights of Salem's history.

George Bowman, president of the Salem Historical Society, and the members welcome interested people to attend the meetings.

A society member,

The Rebel

Meet Potiphar Potts, New York's newest rebel! Mr. Potts is conducting a one-man boycott of the New York subway system, a lone-ranger battle against the 15-cent fare and an all-out war on tokens.

"I am withdrawing my patronage of the subway," Potiphar announced firmly. "I am giving it no more of my business."

This was pretty shocking. "Have you notified the subway people?" we asked.

"I sent a letter to Casey Stengel," said Potiphar.

"You have the wrong Casey," we explained. "Casey Stengel is the baseball man. New York subway matters come under the head of football. The subway Casey is Hugh Casey."

"Why wasn't I told?" said Mr. Potts.

"Do you think your crusade will get anywhere?" we asked.

"Not by SUBWAY, of course," admitted Potts.

"But will it get anywhere by way of a protest?" we asked.

"I shall make a vigorous fight," he replied.

"But the subway won't miss one lone customer, will it?"

"It will miss me," said Potiphar. "I am the customer who always got on a train with a piece of lead pipe, a Samurai sword and a paving rock."

"Why such things in a subway?"

"It's the only sure way to get in or out," snapped Potts.

We pressed him as to how he intended to make his fight effective. "For one thing I shall picket kiosks," he said.

"I have my banners ready. They read: 'Don't Take a Pokin for a Token!'. . . ' Subway Trip Should be A Ride not an Economic Exploit.' . . 'Fifteen Cents is Too Much to Pay for any Scrimmage' and 'Don't Be a Token Slave!' "

"Any others?"

"Yes. I shall use the obvious one: "This Subway Unfair to Battered People,' " admitted Potiphar Potts.

"And I have had suggestions such as 'fifteen Cents Is Fifteen Cents to Me No Matter What It Is to Tom Dewey' and 'Bring Back the Fallen Arches at the Old Price!' "

"Don't forget that the New York subway gives you the longest ride on earth for the money," we cautioned.

"Stop talking like a lobbyist for the token manufacturers," Potiphar snapped. "It ain't the length of the ride, it's the length of the subsequent medical treatment."

From the depths of the subway came the quaint cries of, "Letemoff! Letemoff! Move up forward!"

"Revolt!" cried Potiphar Potts, newest of the big-city rebels. "Revolt! To the barricades! Give me a ten-cent fare or give me death, but don't try to give me that token routine! Are you men or mice?"

"You had better repeat that last question," we suggested.

"Are you men or MICE?" he called again into the depths of the subway.

"Mice," came a frank reply. "Ya wanna make anything of it?"

Potiphar Potts was not downcast. "I shall carry on,' 'he said.

Dean Martin, home from England after some extra caustic notices, declared that British critics have warped minds and that their opinions "stink." Come, come, Dean, you should have funnier lines than that from all those script writers! They called Jerry Lewis a gargoyle, the flatterers.

The Republicans in New York have gone to the Postoffice for a candidate, this being the first effort to get one through the mails. If Postmaster Riegelman runs, it will bring a man of letters to City Hall. (He will have the "stamp" of approval. And as a mailman he can say it is in the bag.).

U. S. Casualties In Korea Reach 140,546

WASHINGTON (AP)—Announced U. S. battle casualties reached 140,546 today in the Korean fighting that ended Monday morning.

All of the 1,274 added to the total since last week were killed, wounded, or declared missing before last Friday midnight.

Although the last shot was fired in the Far East Monday morning (U.S. time) American families will be receiving casualty notices throughout this week, as the process of reporting, checking, and notification takes up to five days—occasionally longer.

A tentative toll for the 37 months of the conflict in Korea will not be known, therefore, for at least one more week. The Pentagon normally closes its books on the weekly casualty summaries with figures based on the number of notification sent to next of kin through the previous Friday.

Gideons Hold Picnic Supper In Alliance

The Alliance Camp of Gideons will distribute copies of the New Testament in district schools this fall and its Auxiliary will place New Testaments in the Nursing Homes in this area.

Plans for this project were made at a picnic supper meeting of the camp and auxiliary Tuesday evening in Silver Park, Alliance. Money for the New Testaments has been contributed by churches in the Salem-Alliance district.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Parker of RD, Salem, officiated. Mr. Parker, president of the camp, welcomed the 31 members and guests. Mrs. Parker is president of the auxiliary.

Orlan Wank, camp chaplain, conducted a devotional period. His talk was based on the Scripture verse, "Not with eyeservice, as men pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart."

Herman C. Stratton was leader for group singing. Miss Pearl Walker, guest of the auxiliary, gave an inspirational talk on "Little Things" to the women. For the nucleus of her talk she used several Bible verses which refer to "little things" including the ants, the conies, the locust and the spider.

Representatives of the Carrollton Camp and Auxiliary were guests. Others in the group were from Salem, Damascus, Kent, Ravenna, and Alliance. The August meeting is scheduled for the Fred Fuller Park, Kent.

Presbyterian Trimble Class Hears Lenore Missionaries

Fifty four attended the annual picnic meeting of the Presbyterian Trimble Class Tuesday evening at Centennial Park when Mr. and Mrs. J. Martin Benade, missionaries on furlough from Lahore, West Pakistan, were guest speakers.

The Benades, guests in the George Meiser home, told of their work at the Foreman Christian College. Mr. Benade centered his talk on the general conditions at their headquarters.

Speaking on education, Mrs. Benade told in detail about the girl of high school age whom the class is helping to support. She stated that the girl is very intelligent and wants to go to college to further her education. The Trimble Class discussed ways and means of helping her realize this ambition, as the poor circumstances of her family permits no help from that source.

Mrs. Lee Vincent read a letter from Carol Huang, a Chinese girl whom the class helped recently. Miss Huang visited the church a few years ago, and was a guest in the Vincent home.

Other guests who spoke briefly were Harold Babb's sister, Mrs. Milly Pine of England, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Clay of Jackson, Miss. and Rev. and Mrs. Ashley Wilson of Hanoverton.

Mrs. John Crawford conducted the business meeting, and devotions, with an outdoor theme, were led by Miss Sarah Walker.

The committee in charge of the picnic arrangements was comprised of Miss Walker, Miss May Montgomery, Miss Ora Vincent and Miss Roberta Grove. They were assisted by Mrs. Clarence Ward and Mrs. Crawford.

No meeting is scheduled in August, but the group will meet again Sept. 29. Mrs. Paul Long will be hostess.

Salem Polo Club Defeated, 18-12, By Detroit Ivory Squad

Rangers Score In Every Frame

Detroit Overcomes Lead In 2nd Half

The Salem Polo Club was defeated last night, 18-12, at the local polo field by the Detroit Rangers before a large crowd of polo fans.

Salem was given a three goal handicap at the start of the contest. The Ivory team scored in every chukker, with Salem also scoring in every period except the fourth. Salem led- 5-2, at the end of the first period, and, 6-5, at the end of the second chukker.

Both teams scored two goals in the third period and Salem led at half-time 8-7. The Ivories scored three goals in the fourth period, while Salem went scoreless, to take the lead for the first time in the contest. Then in the fifth chukker Detroit got five goals to Salem's two, and also outscored Salem in the last period, 3-2.

The Detroit captain, Jack Ivory, was the leading scorer of the contest with eight goals to his credit. Willy Smith led the Salem scoring with four goals. Frank Harris of Harbor Hills played in the number four position in place of Roy Bates, Salem's star defensive player. Bates injured his back in a game with Harbor Hills several weeks ago and it has been bothering him lately. Also in Salem uniform last night was Jimmy Bahr of Cleveland.

Salem played good polo last night but not good enough to keep up with the professional performances of Ivory and Juan Rodriquez. Dave Williams, at the number two position for Detroit, had five goals for Detroit. Williams is 18 years old and a sophomore in college.

Detroit scored one goal on two drives down the field. Game officials said that the first drive by Ivory was the longest ever shot on the Salem field.

Both Willy Smith and Jim Pidgeon made some teriffic shots during the game. Smith had two beautiful angle shots in the first period and Pidgeon had a nice shot off the side boards in the second chukker. Pidgeon scored three Salem goals and Frank Harris and Tony Sheen one goal each.

Wally Duncan was the referee. Walter Fernengel was the announcer and Mickey McQuire the time keeper.

Salem has an off day this Sunday, with Detroit replacing Salem at Cleveland. Next Sunday Salem will play Harbor Hills here.

Salem Merchants Trounce New Waterford, 10-1, For 17th Win

DRIVING TOWARD THE GOAL — A Salem poloist races toward the goal in the game last night between Salem and the Detroit Rangers riders at the Salem field. The fast polo horses kick up a cloud of dust in the fast action. Salem was defeated, 18-12, in a high-scoring contest.

Yanks Defeat Indians, 7-3

Tribe Falls 10 Games Behind Lead

NEW YORK (AP) — They buried Cleveland's Indians again, and this time it appeared the coffin would be strong enough to hold them.

Virtually counted out of the race after four straight New York shellackings in June, the Tribe staged a mild revival before again going into a tailspin.

Now, with two consecutive New York defeats, the Indians are 10 games behind the Yanks with only 57 games left to play.

The Yankees seem definitely hot again, and the Tribe would gain little satisfaction by winning the final game today of their current series. Mike Garcia (12-6) will take the mound for Cleveland and Ed Lopat (10-26) for New York.

Vic Raschi held the Tribesmen to one earned run and nine hits, three of them bunts, in defeating the Indians 7-3 yesterday. Bob Lemon walked five, gave up eight hits and all of New York's runs before being relieved by Bill Wight in the sixth.

All three Indian runs came in the second inning on four singles, a walk and an error by Gil McDougald.

The Yankees scored single runs in the second, third and fifth innings and then pushed over four in a sixth-inning uprising featured by Billy Martin's two-run homer.

After the circuit blow, Phil Rizzuto singled, Raschi sacrified and McDougald brought the Scotter home on another one-bagger. A single by Yogi Berra scored McDougald.

Alroy Bloomberg

Salem Golf Club To Hold Clambake

Alroy Bloomberg is chairman of the 26th annual clambake to be held next Wednesday at the Salem Golf Club.

On the general committee are Ray Reasbeck, co-chairman, T. Emerson Smith, Robert Oswald, William Sponseller, and Ralph Martin. Al Parker is arranging a special program of entertainment.

The clambake has been held annually since 1927 and in recent years has attracted large crowds. Last year over 500 men attended the all day affair. The committee expects to limit the crowd this year to around 300 guests. Guests have been invited from Alliance, Canton, Youngstown, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Warren, Salem, and many other cities.

Golf will be played all day, interrupted only by the lunch served at noon. Prizes will be awarded for the low net and low gross of the day and also in the blind bogey tourney.

The big clambake dinner, cooked by Katy Schell and 25 Saxon women, will be served at night. There also will be a shrimp bar this year in addition to the clambake.

Williams Works Out With Boston Red Sox

BOSTON (AP)—After 15 months as a Marine jet fighter pilot with service in the Korean War, Ted Williams, the Boston Red Sox slugging idol, finds baseball rather hard work.

The new discovery was made after he had signed a contract that carries him through the current season as well as 1954.

"It's a miiltary secret," General Manager Joe Cronin joshed when pressed whether owner Tom Yawkey continued to rate Williams in the six figure salary bracket.

But it can be taken for granted that Williams' baseball earnings from now through 1954 will total about $150,000, just the same wages he was drawing when he was called to serve his second wartime hitch with the Marines.

Local Team Gets 6 Runs In First

Dave Kachner Wins 6th Without A Loss

The Salem Merchants won their 17th game of the season, defeating New Waterford, 10-1, last night at Centennial Park.

The Merchants didn't waste any time getting things started, scoring six runs in the bottom of the first inning. Salem got another run in the fourth, two in the fifth, and one run in the sixth frame.

Salem held New Waterford to only one run, in the fifth inning. Merchant pitcher Dave Kachner won his sixth game of the current season without a loss. Kachner gave up only five well-scattered hits to opposing batters, walked four and fanned four.

Chuck Marks and Bob Loudon led the Merchant hitting with two hits each. Marks had a double and a single and Loudon had two singles. Lou Tisch homered in the fourth inning with one teammate aboard. Culler had two singles for New Waterford and McBride and Landsburger each had a double.

In other Columbiana County action last night East Liverpool edged Negley, 10-9.

Manager Chester Brautigam, in his third year as Merchant pilot, says Salem is in the midst of one of its best seasons, having lost only two games. Last year the Merchants won 21 games while losing three contests. The Merchants will be this year's defending Columbiana County champions in the county playoffs to start early next month.

The annual county North - South All-Star game will be played on Labor Day. Salem, New Waterford, and New Springfield will make up the North All-Stars, with East Liverpool, Negley, Lisbon, and East Palestine going as the South All-Stars.

Salem is currently leading the county league with its 17 wins and two losses. Second is Negley with 14 wins and five losses. East Liverpool is third with a 12-4 win-loss record.

This Sunday Salem journeys to Negley searching for its 18th win this season. Negley handed Salem one of their two defeats.

Redlegs Blast Robin Roberts, Phils, 13-4

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati Redleg power hitting can make even the best of pitchers look bad at times.

That was what happened last night as the Rhinelanders took picks on Robin Roberts, Jim Konstanty, Karl Drews and Andy Hansen for 13-4 victory over the Philadelphia Phils.

The Reds clubbed out 17 hits which included home runs by Ted Kluszewski and Hobie Landrith.

Kluszewski's homer was his 30th of the year and tied the all time record in circuit blows by a left handed Cincinnati hitter. Ival Goodman set the record for the Reds back in 1938.

Jackie Collum won his fourth game for Cincinnati.

The Reds scored three in the first on Rocky Bridges, double, a single by Bobby Adams and Kluszewski's home run.

The Phils wiped that out with a four-run outburst in the secod but Landrith's homer in the bottom half put Cincinnati ahead to stay.

The Redlegs got to Roberts for two more runs in the third on Willard Marshall's two-run double which scored Adams and Jim Greengrass.

Two more runs were scored in the fifth off Konstanty with the big blow being Gus Bell's double. Then the Reds took a liking to the pitching of Drews. They got him for three runs in the sixth on three singles, a hit batsman and an error by Granny Hamner.

Hansen gave up the last two Cincinnati tallies in the seventh on three more hits which included Collum's double.

Polly Riley Favored To Retain Title

By FRITZ HOWELL

CINCINNATI (AP)—Not too long off the tees but putting with the precision of professionals, eight of America's fairest fairway stars went into quarter final matches today in the 53rd Women's Western Amateur golf championship.

Dodgers Nip Cubs, 6-5; Giants Beat Braves, 3-2; White Sox Whip Boston, 8-3; Nats Win

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

More and more the Brooklyn Dodgers' current Western trip is beginning to look like the triumphant tour of a reigning monarch through the provinces.

It's still theoretically a pennant race in the National League, but a glance at the standings today shows it's more theory than race. The Dodgers lead by eight games over second-place Milwaukee with 57 left to play for each club.

The Dodgers could still blow it, but it wouldn't be easy.

For example, suppose Brooklyn—which has won 15 of its last 17 and at almost a 2-1 average all season—would suddenly fall off to a .500 pace, losing as many as it wins the rest of the way.

If such a thing happened, Milwaukee would have to win 37 of its remaining 57 games to gain a tie. That's a .649 clip, considerably faster than the Braves have moved so far. Third-place Philadelphia would have to win 42 while St. Louis would have to take 41 of its last 59.

Brooklyn shaded Chicago 6-5 yesterday and gained a full game over the Braves, who bowed 3-2 to the Giants in Milwaukee. The Phillies fell apart in Cincinnati, losing 13-4. St. Louis defeated Pittsburgh 8-2 as Harvey Haddix registered his 12th victory against four losses.

The New York Yankees and the Chicago White Sox widened their lead over their first-division cohorts in the American League. The Yankees turned back Cleveland for the second straight time 7-3 and the White Sox exploded for eight runs in the ninth inning to whip the Red Sox 8-3. Chicago trails New York by 5½ games but Boston has dropped 9½ behind and Cleveland 10.

In second-division battles in the American League, Washington trounced Detroit 13-5 with Mickey Vernon blasting a three-run home run and two singles and Philadelphia made it two in a row over St. Louis 9-3.

The Dodgers opened up with their extra-base artillery in Chicago to score five runs in the fourth inning and added what proved to be the winning run in the fifth when Gil Hodges walked with two out and scored on a double by Roy Campanella.

The Giants broke a string of 22 scoreless innings against Milwaukee before their game was one out old. Whitey Lockman led off with a triple and Al Dark brought him home with a single. Dark later scored on Monte Irvin's single. A double by Bobby Thomson and a single by Wes Westrum in the second produced the run the Giants needed to win.

Cincinnati drove Robin Roberts of the Phils to the showers for only the second time this season with the assortment of throwers who followed the ace to the mound couldn't do much about silencing the Redlegs' bats either.

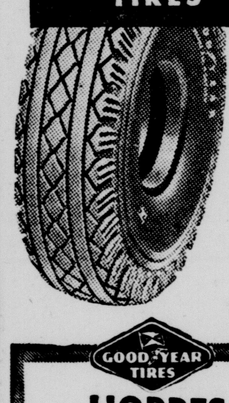

The St. Louis attack against Johnny Lindell and wo Pirate relief men including four doubles, a triple by Enos Slaughter and Solly Hemus' 11th home run with a man aboard.

Maury McDermott tamed the White Sox at Boston for eight innings on two hits but they pounded him out of the box in the ninth with an all-out attack. Billy Pierce went all the way for his 12th victory.

The Yankees spotted Cleveland three early runs, caught up by the end of five and then won the game with four in the sixth.

Ike May Seek Debt Limit Rise

Legislators Called To Breakfast Conference

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower called in congressional leaders for an unusual bipartisan breakfast conference today amid reports he will seek an immediate increase in the federal debt ceiling.

Any such proposal seemed certain to stir an angry row that could knock akilter Congress' plans for adjournment Friday night.

White House concern was indicated by the invitation to Democratic as well as Republican leaders to join the meeting. Normally only Republicans attend such conferences.

The debt ceiling now is 275 billion dollars and the red ink figure already is pushing against the lid, at 272½ billion. The next six months is a period of low tax receipts when spending seems certain to far outstrip income, and more borrowing will be needed.

House Republican leaders said they thought the plan could be pushed quickly through the House. But several members of the Ways and Means Committee said the proposal at least would require several days of hearings and would delay adjournment.

Rep. Kean (R-NJ), usually an administration supporter in the Ways and Means Committee, said in an interview he would "have to be awfully sure it is absolutely essential' before he would go along. If convinced the hike is necessary, he added, he could not oppose it.

Bricker Votes No On Foreign Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) voted against the Eisenhower administration's 4 billion dollar foreign aid bill as the Senate passed the measure today, 69-10.

Bricker was on the losing side yesterday on three other important Senate measures but was the winner in another field as his colleagues elected him chairman of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.

He succeeds the late Sen. Tobey (R-NH) in the chairmanship.

Bricker voted against admitting 209,000 refugees to the United States. He voted for cutting 548 million dollars from foreign aid and for suspending rules to consider the amendment offered by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) to punish nations receiving American aid who trade with Red China.

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP)—William Willis Pollard, 22, won his parole from an 18 month sentence for drunken and reckless driving. But the parole came too late.

The papers arrived at the John son County Prison Camp the day after Pollard escaped.

Now the police are looking for him.

DENMARK'S QUEEN?—A recent national referendum places this 13-year-old girl, Princess Margrethe, next in line for the throne of Denmark. The referendum changed the national constitution to permit a woman to succeed the king. If no baby brother is born to King Frederik and his queen, then Princess Margrethe will become Denmark's first queen since 1412.

Improved Bomb Bay Door Announced

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Glenn L. Martin Company has announced development of a revolving bomb bay door designed to make it speedier and safer for a bomber to get rid of its explosives.

Bombs are loaded onto the door before it is hoisted into the plane. Over target, the door is flipped over a full 180 degrees, the bombs are dropped and the door flipped back again.

Result: no open bomb bay doors to cut down the plane's speed.

The door is being used in the company's new XB51 three-jet tactical bomber.

Two Brothers Die, 6 Hurt In Traffic Crash

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two young brothers from Cuyahoga Falls and a 44-year-old man from Richmond, Ind., were killed last night when a station wagon and a car collided in nearby Middleburgh Heights.

Six others were injured, including two sisters of the dead youths.

Dead were Floyd E. Vossler of Richmond, driver of the car; Donald Mullins, 10; and Roger Mullins, 17. Both boys were the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Mullins of Cuyahoga Falls, near Akron.

Taken to Berea Community Hospital were:

Daniel Welsh, 16, Cuyahoga Falls, driver of the station wagon, possible head injuries, fair condition.

Mary Ann Timmons, 17, Cuyahoga Falls, possible head injuries, serious condition.

Sally Mullins, 13, dislocated right hip, serious condition.

Mrs. Mary Vossler, 40, widow of the dead man, head injuries, fair condition.

Ronald Vossler, 15, her son, head injuries, serious condition.

Except for the 10-year-old boy who was killed, all the youngsters in the station wagon attended Cuyanoga Falls High School.

DENY STAY OF SENTENCE

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court yesterday denied Frank Hashmall's application for a stay of execution of sentence. Hashmall, an admitted Communist, was sentenced in Akron to 1-10 years in Ohio Penitentiary on a charge of signing a fake name to an auto license application.

Doctor, Dentist Die In Plane Crash

CLEVELAND (AP)—A doctor and a dentist were killed today when a small private plane — in the air only about 10 minutes—crashed in flames at nearby Olmsted Falls.

The victims were Dr. James Keane, a physician from nearby Fairview Park, and Dr. George Zemba, a dentist from suburban North Olmsted.

The pair took off from Cleveland Hopkins Airport at 6 a. m. EST apparently headed for Mansfield or Columbus. The Civil Aeronautics Administration received only one radio message from them—asking weather conditions over those two cities.

Apparently the two-seated Beechcraft Bonanza plane caught fire and crashed as they attempted to return to the airport.

Part of the plane fell off and struck a house just before the crash near Stearns Rd. No occupant of the house was injured.

Zemba's widow, Viola, 30, driving home after taking her husband to the airport, saw the plane crash and identified both men.

Both were reserve lieutenants—Keane in the Air Force and Zemba in the Navy.

A passerby who tried to pull them from the flaming wreckage was burned.

About 90 percent of the proved reserves of natural gas in the United States are in five states—Louisiana, Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas.

12-Year-Old Boy To Get Strange Wish Fulfilled

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—A 12-year-old South Dakota lad gets his strange wish fulfilled today. He will see how safes are made.

Harold McConkey started his journey here once before with the $10 he earned on a rubbish collection route. However, police returned him to his home in Mitchell even though his parents had granted him permission to travel.

The President of the Mosler Safe Co., Edwin H. Moshler Jr., heard of the boy's plight. Naturally he admired his goal. So he invited him to tour the safe plant as his guest.

The U.N. made no formal complaint of Communist truce violations. But Air Force officers said the big American radar station on Cho Island off North Korea tracked large numbers of Red warplanes flying to North Korean bases Monday night.

Under terms of the armistice, no additional weapons or armament could enter Korea after the ceasefire went into effect Monday night, aside from replacements. But Air Force officers said the flights continued after the deadline.

The officers said the planes presumably were MIG jets flying to bases in North Korea from Manchuria, where they have been safe from Allied aerial attacking during the war.

U.N. officials said all will be in readiness when the exchange of prisoners begins.

4. The AEC is investigating new methods of uranium exploration, among them the examination of growing plants which might provide a tipoff on the presence of the metal. It is also investigating the potentialities of low - grade sources of uranium, including phosphates and shales.

The report said construction of a plant in the field of military application of atomic energy will be completed this summer at Rocky Flats, near Denver, Colo. Portions of this plant already are in operation. The AEC has described it only as a secret production facility involving radioactive material.

The commission said one of the two atomic power plants being developed for submarine use had already generated "substantial amounts of power' in tests, and the AEC added:

"Design work . . . is underway for developing an advanced nuclear power plant for a submarine of significantly higher speed than the first two nuclear-powered submarines."

Former President Truman, in speaking at the keel laying of the first atomic - powered submarine, Nautilus, said it would have a submerged speed of "more than 20 knots.' This compares with 15 to 17 knots for orthodox subs. Unofficial estimates have been that the Nautilus might attain a speed of 30 knots.

The AEC reiterated it had dropped previous plans to develop an atomic engine for use in a large surface vessel — such as an aircraft carrier — but the commission said the design that had been under consideration "also has promise for central station power" for industrial use.

quests and about $3,150,000,000 off Eisenhower's revised budget.

But this was cold comfort in view of the bleak fiscal picture for the year which started July 1, although the cuts in appropriations may help to balance the budget in future years.

Much of the spending this year will be out of past appropriations. Thus it is not affected by the amounts Congress voted this year.

Aside from the money bills, at least five legislative proposals on the administration's "must" list remain to be acted upon finally, and several of them could cause trouble.

Republican leaders, after a conference with Eisenhower July 20, listed nine bills in addition to appropriations on which they said they wanted action before Congress quit. The bills and their status:

1. Reciprocal trade. Both Senate and House have passed a bill to extend the trade act for a year beyond last June 12, but it has been stalemated in a Senate-House conference.

2. Continental shelf. This is a bill providing for federal administration of submerged oil lands beyond historic state boundaries. It had been tied up in conference.

3. Immigration. The Senate okayed yesterday a bill to permit 209,000 refugees and other aliens to enter this country in the next three years. That put it up to the House, which passed a similar bill a day earlier, to accept the Senate version or send the measure to conference.

4. Postal rate hike. This administration request was shelved this week by the House Postoffice Committee.

5. Small business. A bill to set up a new Small Business Administration to make loans, and to provide for liquidation of the Reconstruction Finance Corp. was sent to the White House yesterday.

6. Extension of farm credit legislation. No major difficulties to Senate House conference agreement were apparent.

7. Military public works. House approval yesterday sent to the White House a bill authorizing $491,595,930 worth of construction by the Army, Navy and Air Force.

8. Treaties. A series of commerce and navigation agreements with other nations was ratified last week by the Senate.

9. Famine relief. House approval yesterday sent to conference with the Senate a restricted version of President Eisenhower's request for authority to send surplus government-held commodities abroad to alleviate famine or other emergency. Senate-House differences are not major.

Representative Acquitted Of Molesting Charge

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Municipal Court jury found Rep. James J. Barton (R-Cuyahoga) innocent yesterday of charges he molested Columbus Policewoman Margaret Stiver June 3.

Several jurors said they acquitted Barton because they felt his actions were no more than those of any man attempting to date a girl.

Miss Stiver testified Barton gave her the key to his hotel room during a conversation on the Statehouse grounds.

Meat Prices To Climb 2-10 Cents

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Most of the nation's food stores will add two cents to as much as a dime to the price of sirloin steak, rib roast and pork chops this week, but there are signs that a temporary peak has been reached.

To offset these increases, lamb prices generally will be a little lower. And the economy-minded housewife will find a number of good buys among vegetables.

One big chain said its weekend prices for sirloin steak will be up two cents in such cities as Pittsburgh, Washington and Los Angeles and up 10 cents in Jacksonville, Fla. Rib roast will be unchanged in some cities, but up eight to 10 cents in others.

Pork chops will continue their long price rise, with increases of six to 12 cents fairly common.

One meat specialist said beef declined at the wholesale level this week after its recent sharp rise, and suggested it probably would stabilize at present levels for some time. Pork also is slightly lower this week at the wholesale level.

Retail prices should drop a bit when these declines are passed along to the consumer.

Meat and fish department specials reported by some stores included haddock filets, smoked hams, frankfurters and ground beef.

Egg prices are unchanged to two to four cents a dozen higher. Butter shows little change in price.

The best buy in vegetables, produce men said, will be tomatoes. And good buys will include beans, broccoli, onions, potatoes and celery — especially the white, golden heart type.

Many stores will feature peaches, rated as the best fruit buy. Oranges, cantaloupe and watermelon will be other specials.

Confession? — Ask The Man Who Goes There!

Catholics go to Confession to a priest for one reason only: to obtain divine forgiveness for their sins.

But why, you ask, go to a priest? Why not confess our sins directly to God?

Ask the man who goes to Confession and here's what he will tell you: Sin is an offense against God, it must be forgiven by God. It is God, not man, who determines how forgiveness must be obtained. Christ plainly pointed this out when He empowered His Apostles and their successors to forgive sins or to refuse forgiveness.

"Whose sins you shall forgive," Christ said, "they are forgiven them; whose sins you shall retain, they are retained." (John 20:21-23). Thus Christ authorized the Apostles, and their successors, to pardon or to deny pardon as they judged the sinner worthy or unworthy. To do this they had to know what they were forgiving... the secret dispositions of the sinner... his sorrow and willingness to repair the wrong done to his neighbor by his sins. Who could make this known but the sinner himself—and what is this but Confession?

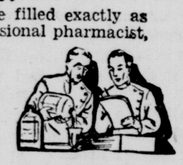

But Confession—the Sacrament of Penance—is only one of the seven Sacraments Christ left in His Church. Yes, seven—no more and no less! Christ's religion is not merely a message to be accepted, but a life to be lived—from the cradle to the grave. Christ's seven Sacraments are the answer to man's seven basic needs.

Man is born, but he needs to be reborn a Christian in the Sacrament of Baptism. He is nourished, but he needs Christian nourishment in Holy Communion, the Sacrament of the Eucharist. He grows, but he needs to grow and be strengthened in Christian life by the Sacrament of Confirmation. He is cured of disease, but he needs a remedy for sin, so destructive of Christian life, and this he finds in the Sacrament of Penance.

Man lives in society which needs officials to promote the common good—and for his life in the Church, he finds officials provided by the Sacrament of Orders. He perpetuates the human race in marriage, which Christ made the Sacrament of Matrimony. And at death, he needs consolation and strength for the last dread hour which he finds in the Last Anointing—the Sacrament of Extreme Unction.

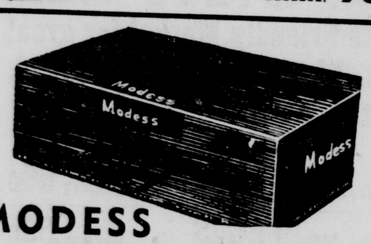

Would you like to know more about each of the seven Sacraments? How they can help you to meet the seven basic needs of your life? Then write today for a free pamphlet which gives important information concerning them. Ask for Pamphlet No. 5-N.

Try Chicken Livers With Melba Toast

Outdoor eating, picnics, church suppers, etc., can be wonderful fun. But the Department of Agriculture has just sent out a warning, which if listened to, can prevent any cases of food poisoning. Here's what they say:

Already this season cases of food poisoning have been reported as an aftermath of picnics or community meals. The mistaken belief that once food is cooked it will keep for hours, even in a warm place, seems to be responsible for many of these outbreaks each summer.

Bacteriologists of the United States Department of Agriculture say the safe rule to follow when cooked food must wait is: keep it chilled or keep it very hot — but never at a warm, in-between temperature. They caution that foods which cause food poisoning often show no signs of spoilage, so you can't rely on odor, taste or appearance.

Especially subject to rapid and dangerous spoilage in a warm place are soft protein foods, especially those handled in preparation. These include soft custards, cream - filled pastries, or cakes, cooked salad dressing, stuffed eggs or egg salads, and all cooked meats poultry and fish. These foods can't wait in picnic baskets or out on the table.

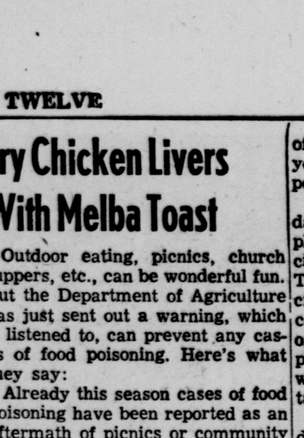

Not for outdoor eating, but for de luxe dining at home, try this recipe from New York City's Steak Joint in Greenwich Village. Dan Stampler, who runs the place, inherited this recipe from his food-loving family.

Steak Joint Chicken Livers Paprika
(3 to 4 servings)

One pound fresh chicken livers,
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon black pepper
2 teaspoons paprika
1½ teaspoons sugar
1 large onion (diced)
butter
Melba toast

Saute onion in melted butter until completely brown. Add mixed seasoning and stir well. Add fresh chicken livers and saute six minutes. Serve in casserole with Melba toast. Takes about eight minutes to prepare.

Dumplings, Sauce Add Taste To Fish

You can find more than one way to tackle the fish problem on Friday. The obvious ones, of course, are to buy different kinds of fish and cook them differently. A slightly less obvious, but just as handy, idea, is to dress up the accompanying dishes so that they will make the fish itself attractive and more palatable. Mustard dumplings and tomato sauce add a flavorful note to this meal.

FISH WITH MUSTARD DUMPLINGS

Mustard Dumplings

Sift ¾ cup corn meal, ½ cup all - purpose flour, 1¼ teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon powdered dry mustard, and ½ teaspoon salt.

Mix 1 egg and ½ cup milk and beat slightly. Add to corn meal mixture. Mix well.

Add 1 tablespoon melted vegetable shortening. Drop by small spoonsful into boiling tomato sauce.

Cover well and simmer for 15 minutes without lifting the lid. Remove at once from sauce. Serves 4-6.

Tomato Sauce.

Simmer 3 carrots, sliced thin, 3 stalks celery, sliced thin, 8 small white onions and ½ cup green peas until tender.

Combine 1 No. 2 can solid pack tomatoes, 1 No. 2 can tomato juice, 1 tablespoon parsley flakes, ½ teaspoon black pepper and ⅛ teaspoon garlic powder.

Simmer 10 minutes. Add dumpling mixture. Cook 15 minutes covered. Remove dumplings. Add vegtables and heat thoroughly.

Fish

Spread 2 medium halibut steaks (about ½-inch thick; with 2 tablespoons butter or margarine. Sprinkle with 1 teaspoon salt and paprika. Broil five minutes. Turn.

Spread other side with 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, salt and paprika. Broil for five minutes. Keep hot. Place fish in center of serving platter. Surround by sauce. Rim with mustard dumplings.

Onion Is Good In Cheese Custard

The onion, always important to the homemaker for flavoring accents in cooking, is in the spotlight these days, playing a leading role on the United States Department of Agriculture's plentiful list.

Old timers on the plentiful list, cheese and nonfat dry milk, combine with the new star in an onion and cheese custard that is bound to win applause at the family dinner table.

ONION AND CHEESE CUSTARD

3 cups sliced onion
2 tablespoons butter
1 (½-lb)pkg. sharp cheddar process cheese, shredded
2 cups water
¾ cup (1 envelope) nonfat dry milk
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon curry powder
4 eggs, slightly beaten.

In skillet, saute onions in butter until lightly browned. Place sauteed onions in bottom of 1½-quart casserole. Sprinkle shredded cheese over onions.

Pour water into deep bowl; sprinkle nonfat dry milk powder, salt and curry powder over surface of water. Beat with rotary beater until blended.

Add slightly beaten eggs and beat until smooth. Pour nontat dry milk mixture over cheese and onions. Place casserole in baking pan. Fill pan with water to depth of 1½ inches.

Bake in water bath in a moderate oven (375 F.) 35 to 40 minutes until top is lightly browned or until knife comes out clean when inserted near center. Serves six.

BROWN RIM COOKIES bf

½ cup butter or margarine
1-3 cup sugar
pinch of salt
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
½ teaspoon vanilla
1 large egg
¾ cup sifted flour

Cream butter; add sugar, salt, lemon rind and vanilla; cream until fluffy. Gradually stir in flour with spoon or rubber spatula until blended.

Drop level tablespoons of dough at least an inch apart onto a greased cookie sheet.

Bake in moderate (350 F.) oven until edges are lightly browned (about 10 minutes). Let stand on cookie pan 1 minute, then remove with spatula and cool on cake rack.

Makes about 2 doz. cookies. These taste extra-delicious the same day they are baked, but they are also delicious if stored in a tightly-closed container between layers of waxed paper.

CORN BEAD RING

1-3 cup sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1½ teaspoons salt
1½ cups yellow corn meal
2 eggs
1¼ cups milk
¼ cup butter or margarine (melted)

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and corn meal. Beat eggs enough to combine yolks and whites; add milk and melted butter and beat enough to combine.

Add to dry ingredients, mixing with rotary beater until there are no lumps. Pour into well greased 9-inch ring mold; batter will be thin.

Bake in hot (400F) oven 25 minutes or until corn bread shrinks from sides of mold. Turn out and fill with 3 cups of diced leftover meat that has been heated with 1½ cups gravy. Makes 6 servings.

Try Chicken Saute With Orange Juice

Looking for something very different for Sunday's dinner? Maybe this is it — chicken saute with orange juice and pure monosodium glutamate. It's the kind of dish you'll find in Florida and California.

Orange Chicken Saute
(Serves 3 or 4)

One pound frying chicken (about 3½ pounds), cut in pieces for serving
salt and pepper to taste
1-3 cup butter or margarine
1 large onion (chopped)
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup orange juice
½ teaspoon pure monosodium glutamate
2 tablespoons sherry, if desired

Sprinkle chicken pieces with salt and pepper; saute gently in butter until delicately browned, turning to brown all sides. Remove chicken and cook onion in the drippings for a minute or so.

Blend in flour; add orange juice and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture boils and thickens. Season sauce with salt and pepper plus the ½ teaspoon of monosodium glutamate.

Return chicken to pan. Bring to boil, then cover and simmer very gently 45 minutes to one hour, or until chicken is tender, turning and basting chicken occasionally.

Just before serving, add sherry, if desired. Taste and add additional salt, pepper and monosodium glutamate if needed.

Green peas, stuffed baked sweet potatoes and hot biscuits are exactly right with this dish.

For summer vegetable dishes, several of our friends use monosodium glutamate. They insist it heightens the fresh flavor.

Summer Squash Timbales
(Serves 6)

Mix 2 cups well drained, mashed, cooked patty-pan squash with 1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
3 slightly beaten eggs
½ cup grated natural American Cheddar cheese
½ cup cracker crumbs
1 tablespoon minced onion
salt and pepper to taste
¼ teaspoon monosodium glutamate.

Turn into 6 greased custard cups; set in shallow pan of hot water. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 40 minutes, or until firm.

CINNAMON PINWHEELS

2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1-3 cup Crisco
¾ cup milk
Filling:
2 teaspoons cinnamon
½ cup sugar
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Sift flour, baking powder and salt into a bowl. Cut Crisco (with knives, fork, or pastry blender) until the mixture looks like coarse cornmeal. Blend 1 cup of the Crisco-flour mixture with ¾ cup milk.

Add this to the remaining Crisco-flour mixture and mix just enough to hold dough together. Transfer dough to board or pastry cloth which has been dusted with flour. Knead lightly. Roll dough to oblong shape, about 10"x10".

Sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar and dot with butter. Roll lengthwise in same manner as jelly roll and seal edge tightly. Cut slices; place on cookie sheet or in muffin tins which have been rubbed with Crisco.

Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 12-15 minutes.

At the end of a session of cleaning, relax like a rag doll. One way to do this is to sit on the edge of a straight chair, spread your feet widely apart, and lean forward limply, with arms and head slowly dropping between your knees. When you're as close to the floor as you can get, swing your head and arms slightly for a few minutes.

Home Dressed Meats Always

Have you tried our dry-fed beef? Very few people realize that dry-fed beef is far superior to grass beef. Try one of our roasts and steaks and see for yourself how much better they are than what you have been serving. Also dressing and processing our own meat, we have found different things that cause good beef to be tough. One important thing we found that steers must be quiet and rested, even just moving them from our feeding lot to the resting pen outside of our processing room, they are so excited that they do not bleed out right, resulting in soft, tough meat. After eight years we have discovered many ways of making improvements in our meat. Even so our meat is no higher than most meat offered for sale every day.

Coffee Cake Uses Ready-Mix

Now is the abundant season for plump and juicy blueberries. New Jersey is one of the biggest producers. So we stopped off in Tenafly, N.J., to get some ideas from Mrs. R. M. Shultz.

She gathers the berries from her own back-yard patch and is known for miles for her way with them.

Mrs. Shultz's most famous recipe is for blueberry coffee cake. She makes it quickly with a speedy pancake ready-mix and says you can use fresh, quick-frozen or canned fruit; for it's the bluebrry flavor that counts.

The bluebessries permeate the batter in baking and give a fresh fruit flavor that's delightful. Break off a piece and spread with butter. It fairly melts in your mouth.

Mrs. Shultz's recipe is about the best we've ever tasted. Good luck with it.

Blueberry Coffee Cake (makes one 8 inch square.)

Two cups pancake ready-mix
1 teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup sugar
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 egg (beaten)
1¼ cups milk
2 tablespoons melted shortening
1 cup blueberries, drained

Mix together pancake ready-mix, nutmeg, sugar and lemon rind. Add beaten egg, and milk; fold in melted shortening. Spread batter in a greased 8-inch square pan.

Sprinkle blueberries over the batter. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

Serve warm with whipped cream for dessert, or warm with butter for coffee cake.

Blueberry Muffins
(Makes 12 muffins)

Two cups pancake ready-mix
½ cup sugar
1 egg (beaten)
1½ cup milk
2 tablespoons melted shortening
1 cup fresh or frozen bluebessies, drained.

Mix together pancake ready-mix and sugar; add beaten egg and milk, stirring lightly until combined. Fold in melted shortening and blueberries.

Fill greased muffin pans 2-3 full and bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) 15 to 25 minutes.

Try Steak Broil For Sunday Dinner

A broiled steak for Sunday can be a regular now with beef prices tumbling. But it's been so long since most of us have had a good thick steak that the cooking experts of the United States Department of Agriculture in Washington think we might have forgotten how to broil one. Here are their expert instructions.

Suited to broiling are the better grades of tenderloin, sirloin, T-bone, rib or club steaks — all cuts from the more tender muscles of the side of beef. When buying steak for tenderness, look for fine-textured lean, well-marbled with fat, and for red, porous bones, all signs that the steak has come from young, well-fed beef animals.

For home-broiling, a steak 1 to 2 inches thick is suggested. Slash fat at the edges of the meat to prevent its curling as it cooks. Preheat the broiler and grease the broiler rack lightly to keep meat from sticking to it.

Place the steak at the right distance from the heat. This calls for judgment. Generally the rule is to have the top of the meat 2 inches from the heat if you want the steak rare, or at 3 inches if it is to be well-done. Thick steaks should be placed farther from the heat than thin steaks because they need slower cooking.

Generally the oven door should be left open or ajar during broiling, not only to allow the cook to keep watch of the browning but also to see that spattering fat doesn't catch fire.

Broil steak until the top side is browned to your liking, season, then turn on the other side. Browning the other side may take less time because the meat is hot by the time it is turned.

If a fork is used to turn the steak, stick it into the fat, not the lean, to keep juices from running out. Turning with tongs may be easier. Here is an approximate timetable as a guide:

For steak 1-inch thick, rare — total time about 10 minutes, or 5 minutes for each side; medium—about 15 minutes; well done—about 20 to 25 minutes.

For steak 1½ inches thick, rare —about 15 minutes; medium — about 20 minutes; well done—25 to 30 minutes.

For steak 2 inches thick, rare —about 25 minutes; medium — about 35 minutes; well done—about 45 to 50 minutes.

Flavor change: Crumble some crispsly cooked bacon over a platter of macaroni and cheese before you bring it to the table.

SKILLET LAMB CHOPS

4 shoulder lamb chops (about 1¼ pounds)
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
6 small carrots
1 medium size onion
½ teaspoon dry crushed marjoram
salt and pepper
1 bouillon cube
½ cup boiling water

Cut almost all fat from outside edge of chops. Melt butter in skillet until very hot. Add lamb chops and brown on both sides.

Meanwhile pare carrots and cut in half lengthwise; cut chunky tops in half again Peel onion and cut in eighths. Add carrots and onion to skillet so they are on bottom of pan and will brown slightly.

Sprinkle with marjoram and salt and pepper to taste. Dissolve bouillon cube in water; add to skillet.

Scrape up brown particles from bottom of pan with wooden spoon so they will mix with bouillon. Cover and simmer until lamb chops and vegetables are tender and most of liquid has evaporated — about 15 minutes.

Remove cover; turn lamb chops so brownest sides are uppermost; serve at once. Makes 4 servings.

One cut of raw rice usually makes three cups after it's cooked, so count on one-third cup of raw rice for each person to be served.

ICE CREAM FLOAT

½ cup sugar
6 tablespoons cocoa
dash of salt
1 cup boiling water
4 teaspoons instant-coffee powder
2 tablespoons hot water
6 cups milk
1 pint coffee ice cream

Mix sugar, cocoa and salt in saucepan. Stir in boiling water. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until smooth. Bring to boil; boil gently 1 minute.

Remove from heat. Dissolve coffee powder in hot water, stir into cocoa mixture. Stir in 1 cup of milk; add to remaining milk Mix well; chill.

At serving time divide ice cream in 6 glasses; fill glasses with mocha-milk mixture. Serve with iced-tea spoons and straws or spoon-sippers. Makes 6 servings.

Know how to "scald" milk? Heat it to just under the boiling point—that's when tiny bubbles show around the edge.

When It Comes to Saving Money on Food

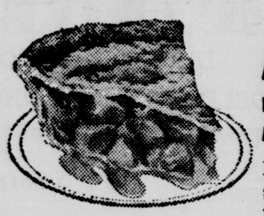

It's Storewide Low Prices That Count the Most!

The typical Food Super Market, including A&P, stocks over 3,000 items on its shelves and in its display cases but the typical food newspaper ad is seldom able to include more than 100 or 150 items. This is only a small sampling of the store's price policy. Therefore, as useful as they are, the newspaper ads do not tell the whole story. That is why we repeatedly say "COME SEE AT A&P," for only by seeing for yourself can you discover how much you can save at A&P on the items and brands that you prefer. You'll be delighted at the lower prices you'll discover on the rank and file merchandise up and down the aisles and you'll be delighted with how much you can save on your total food bill. Then you'll see why we say "IT'S STOREWIDE LOW PRICES THAT COUNT THE MOST!"

Enjoy New England Lobster Pie Recipe

Just off U.S. route 20 at Sturbridge, Mass., there's a New England common, and on the common a white inn, and in the inn as wonderful a fresh lobster pie as any man or woman ever tasted.

Dick Treadway, who owns the inn, told me how to make it.

Individual Lobster Pie
Treadway Style

Two tablespoons butter
1 cup well-packed lobster meat
¼ cup sherry or ¼ cup water with 1 tablespoon lemon juice
3 tablespoons butter
1 tablespoon flour
¾ cup thin cream
2 egg yolks

(The chef at the inn does not use flour, but because sauce takes both practice and skill to make, the flour is recommended to the new home maker.)

Melt 2 tablespoons butter. Add sherry or ¼ cup water with lemon juice. Boil 1 minute. Add lobster and let stand.

Melt 3 tablespoons butter. Add flour. Stir until it bubbles 1 minute. Remove from heat.

Slowly stir in cream and wine or lemon water drained from lobster. Return to heat and cook, stirring all the time, until the sauce is smooth and thick. Remove from heat.

Beat egg yolks very well. Stir into yolks 4 tablespoons of sauce, 1 tablespoon at a time. Add to sauce, mixing well.

Heat over hot water, either by placing the saucepan with mixture in it in a larger saucepan 1-3 full of hot water, or by heating in top of double boiler.

Water should not be allowed to get hot enough to boil. If it does, sauce may curdle or break.

Sauce should be stirred constantly while heating. It takes about 3 minutes. Remove from heat. Add lobster. Turn into a small, deep pie plate. Sprinkle with topping. Bake in slow oven (300 degrees F.) for 10 minutes.

Toppings (Serves 2)

One-quarter cup cracker meal
¼ teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons melted butter
1 tablespoon finely crushed potato chips
1½ teaspoons Parmesan cheese

Mix dry ingredients. Add melted butter and blend well. Sprinkle on lobster pie.

Spanish Pot Roast Is Economical

Abundance of high quality beef in the market makes this a wise as well as a welcomed serving today.

Tender pot roasts are a favorite among many folks and this one gets a new "occasion" look. It's served on a bed of white rice and topped with a zestful tomato-onion sauce.

To complete your main course you need only to add buttered green beans, assorted relishes and, perhaps, hot rolls.

Spanish Pot Roast

3 to 4-lb. arm of blade pot roast
1 large onion, sliced
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
2 cups tomatoes
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper

Brown onion in lard or drippings. Remove onion and brown the meat on both sides. Add onion, tomatoes and seasonings.

Cover closely and simmer until tender, allowing 3 to 4 hours for cooking. Thicken liquid for gravy. Serves 6 to 8.

Use Eggplant Sauce For Spaghetti Dish

Now here's one for your spaghetti book. Mabel Stegner, who hails from the Midwest served it to us a while back and we vote for it.

Eggplant Sauce for Spaghetti
(Yield: 1½ cups spaghetti sauce, enough for 4 generous servings).

Two tablespoons salad oil
1 clove garlic (minced)
3 cups finely diced peeled eggplant
1 pound, 8-ounce can tomato
1 cup water
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon sugar
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet
2 tablespoons minced olives

Place oil in frying pan. Add garlic and cook 1 minute. Add eggplant. Continue to cook for 10 minutes, stirring frequently. Add remaining ingredients. Mix well and bring to boil.

Cover and cook slowly until eggplant falls apart, about 15 minutes. Remove cover and continue cooking until sauce is desired consistency, about 20 minutes longer.

Serve over freshly cooked spaghetti and accompany with grated Parmesan cheese.

While on the subject of eggplant, let's try this one:

Baked Eggplant, Vienna
(Serves 4 or 5)

Peel and dice about 2 pounds eggplant. Cook, covered, in boiling salted water 10 minutes, or just until tender. Drain thoroughly.

Mix eggplant with 1 cup thick sour cream, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper to taste and ¼ teaspoon monosodium glutamate.

Turn into greased casserole; sprinkle with 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese; dust with paprika. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) about 25 minutes, or until bubbly.

CRISPY FRIED CHICKEN.

One 2½ pound (ready-to-cook weight) frying chicken
1½ cups flour
2 teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon pepper
2 cups buttermilk
1 teaspoon baking soda

Have chicken cut into 10 serving size pieces; wash and dry. Sift flour, salt and pepper together; separate into two even piles on a large piece of waxed paper.

Mix buttermilk and baking soda together. Roll a piece of chicken in one pile of seasoned flour; dip into buttermilk-soda; then roll in second pile of flour.

Continue coating one piece of chicken at a time this way. Fry in kettle of deep fat or in electric fryer; do not use frying basket with either utensil.

Have fat at 350 F. and cook chicken until lightly browned, 10 to 15 minutes. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes 4 servings.

Try Cherry-Rhubarb Pie, Jam

Ever dry combining plump, dark sweet cherries with rhubarb? We learned about this delicious trick in the Pacific Northwest, land of fabulous cherry orchards.

The deep red of the cherries and the lighter shades of rhubarb produce pies and jam beautiful to look at and really wonderful to eat. So how about taking advantage of these early summer fruits while they are still in season?

Sweet Cherry and Rhubarb Pie

One pint pitted, dark, sweet cherries
1 cup diced rhubarb
2-3 cup sugar
2 tablespoons tapioca
1 tablespoon butter
Pastry for 2 crust 9-inch pies.

Combine first 4 ingredients and put in pastry-lined pie plate. Dot with butter. Place crust on top, vent and seal. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 35 minutes.

Sweet Cherry Rhubarb Jam (Makes about 5 8-ounce jars)

One and one-quarter pounds dark sweet cherries
1 pound rhubarb
2 tablespoons lemon juice
4½ cups sugar
1 box powdered fruit pectin

Wash rhubarb, slice thin; cover with ½ cup sugar and let stand for 15 minutes. Wash, pit, and grind or chop cherries fine. Combine the fruits and measure 4 cups of fruit into saucepan.

Add lemon juice. Measure remaining 4 cups of sugar into bowl, set aside to be used later.

Add powdered fruit pectin; stir constantly until mixture comes to a boil. Add sugar; bring to a full rolling boil and boil for 1 minute. Remove from heat, stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes. Ladle into hot, sterilized jars and seal or paraffin immediately.

POACH EGGS WITH HAM

1 cup finely diced lean ham
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
4 slices buttered toast

Brown ham in butter in skillet, stirring often. Meanwhile fill a shallow pan with two inches of water; bring to boiling. Reduce heat to hold temperature at simmering. Break one egg at a time into a saucer and quickly slip onto surface of simmering water. Cook 3 to 5 minutes, depending on firmness desired. Remove eggs with slotted pancake turner or spoon; drain well; slip onto slice of buttered toast and top with ham tidbits. Makes 4 servings.

VEGETABLE GOULASH

1 large onion
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 No. 2 can tomatoes
1 No. 2 can whole green beans
one 7-ounce can whole kernel corn
¼ teaspoon dried crushed thyme
⅛ teaspoon ground allspice
salt and freshly ground pepper (to taste)

Peel onion and quarter; cut into thin lengthwise strips. Melt butter or margarine in skillet (about 10-inch size) add onion and cook over low heat, stirring occasionally, until wilted and yellowed. Meanwhile drain tomatoes, beans and corn; save vegetable liquids for soup or sauce another day. Add vegetables to onion with sugar, thyme, allspice, salt and pepper. Heat quickly, stirring a few times, and breaking up tomatoes if necessary. Serve in sauce dishes if desired, with pan juices. Makes 6 servings.

SEAFOOD DRESSING

1 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon dry mustard
prepared horseradish (if desired)
1 hardcooked egg (finely cut)
1 tablespoon minced parsley
1 tablespoon finely diced green pepper
1 tablespoon finely cut scallion (including some of green top)

Mix mustard with a little of the mayonnaise; blend in rest of mayonnaise. Add horseradish to taste if desired, egg, parsley, green pepper and scallion; mix well. Makes about 1¼ cups.

About three and one-half per cent of the ocean is salt.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

SOMEWERE IN GERMANY

The Russians now know they must fear "The Sign of the Snail."

It is the symbol of sabotage against them. It is the mark of the new underground inside Soviet - Germany, miles inland from Berlin and its foreign correspondents. It is the mark of terror to come against the Red gauleiters who are trying to run the Russian zone for Moscow.

Victor Riesel

The Sign of The Snail was first created by the German labor unions (DGB) whose headquarters are in the bombed-out steel and coal city of Dusseldorf.

-:-

IT WAS used at first merely to urge their fellow workers in the Russian Zone's new munitions and heavy industry to slow down — work at snail's pace.

But now, having cost the Russians vast production losses, it has become the sign of all underground resistance.

Originally the thought came from the Danes and the Norwegians, who, during the Nazi occupation in the last war painted tortoises on factory walls as the sign of the most terrific sabotage technique of all — the slow down.

The German anti-Communist labor leaders decided the snail was simpler and quicker to draw with the secret police always around the corner.

It is simply a spiral running clock-wise from a dot, the outer ring going off at the left in a short three-pronged fork. Takes a second to draw.

I have seen packages of thousands of tiny onion skin newspapers, six by eight inches in size, prepared for underground distribution in East Germany — and at the bottom of the front page are six little snails in a row.

-:-

EACH IS on a white background the size of a stamp. Each is perforated on three sides. These are snipped by the underground workers and carried in the palm of their hands.

If caught they can swallow and digest the stamp-size piece of tissue paper.

If not, it is used by one anti-Communist worker to identify himself to another, It can be reported here for the first time.

The Sign of the Snail is not even known in West Germany, much less anywhere else throughout the world, although it was created and the little underground newspaper, Die Kleine Tribune, is prepared at German Labor's Hansbuckler Haus, Stromstrasse, in Dusseldorf.

The underground activity pivots on the slogan: "Whereever you see the Sign of The Snail, you'll find people who think as you think."

And so the anti - Communist movement is giving the Russian invader the underground treatment given the Nazi invader in other lands during the last war.

THE SLOWDOWN era of the Snail worked well. It was the appeal for sabotage of Soviet production which helped to convince German workers to slash their output — and in turn did much to provoke the Russian authorities to order further speedups thus leading to the June Day riots.

Now the Snail is being used to terrorize the Russians and their Red Gauleiters. Today over Soviet Zone factory walls, there can be found the Snail's new slogans:

"The Snail warns party and state we are completely fed up with you."

"Not a second of time and not an ounce of production for the Slave Labor State."

"Fight against those who let us hunger and who waste the fruits of our labor . . . (Deputy Prime Minister) Ulbricht feeds the people with as much meat as there is in a Snail."

"The Snail on each wall will make trouble for (Commie Boss) Grotewohl."

THESE CALLS to open revolt find fertile fields for recruits in the Soviet Zone, we have just been told by those who contact the East Hungr in East Grmany is ap- Germans regularly. palling. There's been virtually no meat since last December. The women must queue up for two slices of bread. There is no butter.

There is not even the great German staple — potatoes. In place of all this there is cheese — sometimes.

And if there were such luxuries as butter, it would — and has — cost $10 a pound. Sugar is $2 a pound. Pork goes for $6 a pound, when it is available. Ladies' shoes are prohibitive at $48 a pair.

All this because Moscow has been ignoring the consumer industires and is rebuilding East Germany into an arsenal. It may explode in the Kremlin's collective face long before it can be used.

The "Sign of the Snail" is everywhere back of Berlin.

The annual surplus of births over deaths per thousand of population in the United States rose from five in 1936 to nearly 16 in 1947.

LITTLE LIZ

Many a fellow has found the girls are willing to play ball with him if he has a big enough diamond.

Dinner In Cairo

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—We are just entering the real magic carpet age.

Before the year 2,000 some American mother, noticing her daughter furiously packing her suitcase on a Saturday morning, will ask:

Where are you going, Mary?"

"To Cairo . . . they're having a houseboat-on-the-Nile party there tonight," Mary will reply. "Now don't worry, mother. I'll be home tomorrow afternoon."

Weekend tourist trips to the moon probably won't be popular until a few years after that.

Such ideas still sound a bit fantastic to us. But how the generation of 1900, would have hooted if someone had said that in 1953 airplanes would fly the Atlantic Ocean in less than five hours, as two jet bombers did this week in a routine journey at above 600 miles an hour.

Why, in 1900 only fools like those two dreamy but impractical Wright Brothers even thought a heavier-than-air machine could ever fly. The average man knew it was scientifically impossible.

In 1492 Christopher Columbus took about 70 days to sail the ocean blue and reach an island outpost of the Western Hemisphere. It took him 16 days more to reach Cuba, which he was sure must be Japan. After four days passed without seeing any Geisha girls, however, he decided he must be in some other part of Asia.

In 1620 it took the Pilgrim Fathers 96 days in the Mayflower to reach America, and there was no Grover Whalen to greet them. Nope, just a few wild Indians, completely uninhibited because at that time they had no reservations.

As late as 1773 a traveler marveled at the speed and ease with which a fellow could go from Boston to New York in only a week, by riding a stagecoach every day from 4 a. m. to 10 p. m. How could progress go any further? Today you can fly the distance in less than an hour, and you don't have to get out and help push it if it gets stuck.

Today the space between nations is, in terms of time, less than the space between neighbors in the frontier days of Daniel Boone. But the distance between the earth's peoples, in terms of understanding each other, is still a vast gulf.

The world is shrinking faster than the human heart is expanding. That fact is the great danger of our civilization. We have built speedy machinery that makes each man a neighbor of every other an on earth, but no machine has been invented to make all neighbors friends.

Millions of people today can travel now to foreign places they could not afford to go to even a generation ago. But often they stay there only long enough to intensify prejudice. It is more like a trip to the zoo than an adventure in discovering the fellowship of man. The foreigner seems even more foreign to them than if they had never seen him.

For such as these travel is narrowing, not broading. They return home smaller in spirit, not larger.

They remind me of the old New Hampshire farmer who all his life had heard of the strange goings-on in Boston. At last he decided he simply had to go and see for himself.

He caught the morning milk train to the city. Late that evening he wearily stepped off a returning train at his depot.

"Have a good rip, Jeb?' askd a hanger-on.

"Yep.'

"Tell me, what's Boston really like?"

"Boston?" said Jeb. "Well, to tell you the truth, there was so much going on at the railroad station I never did get out for a look at the village."

Winona

There were about 100 in the group when Friends Church members and Sunday school enjoyed a picnic supper at Firestone Park July 22.

A ball game, other games and contests, and films shown by Maynard Brantingham added to the evening's pleasure.

The evening closed with a devotional period in charge of the pastor, Paul Brantingham.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Rhodes were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moore and son Billy of Slippery Rock, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dimko and son David Allen of Salem.

Miss Carna Arbanitis spent a few days visiting her sister Mrs. Thomas Hammerton at Smithfield over the weekend.

Robert Stanley, George Oliphant, Misses Martha and Gladys Satterthwaite and David Peacock were among those attending the Young Friends Conference held at the Friends Boarding School, Barnesville, last weekend. Miss Jillian Dingle of London, England was present.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McGrew of Barnesville and Mrs. Anna Hall of Salem were Sunday guests in the Albert Gamble home.

Recent guests in the Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brantingham home were their son and his wife Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brantingham, and daughters Anne, Grace and Barbara, and son Joe of Kennwick, Wash.

There were about 35 present at a family picnic held at Silver Park, Alliance honoring the Brantinghams. Others visiting in the Joseph Brantingham home, and attending the picnic were Mrs. Walter Whinnery and son Lewis of Charleston, W. Va.; and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Negus and daughter Nancy of Colerain.

Recent guests in the Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ruble home were their daughter and her husband Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Samuelson, and son Victor Roy of Greensboro, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Camp spent last week with their daughter Mrs. Mary Jane Coffee of Salem.

Guests this week in the Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ruble home are their granddaughter, Peggy Ruble of Randolph, and Mrs. Paul Portius of East Liverpool. At the conclusion of Mrs. Portuis' visit here, she will spend some time with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Portius, at Calumet, Mich.

There were 40 present when members held a supper at the Wilbur Friends Meeting House here the evening of July 22.

The affair was in honor of Miss Jillian Dingle of London, England. Miss Dingle is one of a group of four young English Friends visiting Friends in the United States this summer. The evening closed with the midweek worship service.

Mr. and Mrs. Hillis Gray and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gray and daughter Bonnie enjoyed a vacation trip to Nevada, Iowa where they visited Hillis Gray's sister Miss Ruth Gray.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Brenner were their nieces and nephews Barbara, Brenda, Bruce and Byron Eick of Beloit.

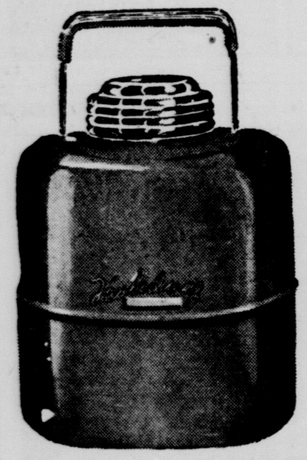

There will be no meeting of the Winona Farm Advisory Council held this month.

The American Friends Service Committee sewing to be held Wednesday the 29th has been postponed.
